Archbishop Mitty Dies Of Seizure; Daily Masses Set

77-Year-Old Catholic Prelate To Lie In State

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Arrangements for the funeral of Archbishop John Joseph Mitty, spiritual head of more than a million Catholics in the Archdiocese of San Francisco, were announced today.

The 77-year-old archbishop died at 6:30 a.m. yesterday at St. Patrick's Seminary in Menlo Park where he occasionally resided in past years.

Solemn Pontifical Requiem Mass will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow and at that time every day through Friday at St. Mary's Cathedral for the archbishop.

His remains were to lie in state at the cathedral beginning at 3 p.m. today. ..

His burial was planned for Friday at Holy Cross Mausoleum in Colma. No time was announced.

'A sudden complete coronary thrombosis" was listed as cause of death by Dr. Thaddeus J. Whalen, San Francisco surgeon, and Dr. Frank Solomon, the archbishop's personal physician.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown, notified of Archbishop Mitty's death in Los Anglese, described him as "a great man, a great spiritual leader, and a tremendous influence for good."

"I've known Archbishop Mitty from the time when he first came to San Francisco," said Brown, who is a Roman Catholic. "As governor of the state of California, I know I express the sentiment of all the people in this state when I say he will be missed very, very much."

The archbishop made his last public appearance in 1956. Since that time he has been convalescent and a hospital patient several times as a result of a number of small heart seizures.

However, Doctors Whalen and Solomon, who were at his bedside at the time of death, said the archbishop had been sitting up in his room conversing with close associates as late as Saturday.

Archbishop Mitty was born in New York Jan. 30, 1884, and graduated from Manhattan College at the age of 17. He entered St. Joseph's Seminary in New York and was ordained a priest in 1906.

He continued his studies at the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., where he received the degree of doctor of sacred philosophy in 1908.

After a short tenure at the major pontifical seminary in Rome, he returned to St. Joseph's where he taught until America's entry into World War I. He became a chaplain and served in the Meuse-Argonne offensive.

On his reutrn from Europe, he became pastor of Sacred Heart Church, Highland Falls, N. Y., and chaplain to cadets at nearby West Point. In 1922, he was named pastor of St. Luke's Church, New York, where he served until 1926 when the Pope made him bishop of Salt Lake City, Utah.

He was appointed co-adjutor to Archbishop Joseph Hanna of San Francisco in January, 1932. Three years later, he was consecrated archbishop of the diocese when Archbishop Hanna retired to Rome, where he died.

Communists Gather For Big Congress

MOSCOW (UPI) — Th 22nd Congress of the Communist Party meets tomorrow in the modernistic glass and marble Kremlin Palace of Congresses to hear a marathon speech by Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev that could shape the cold war for years to come.

An anxious world awaited his views on Berlin and Germany, on Laos, the United Nations, nuclear testing and disarmament and the thousand and one issues that have plunged the world into its worst crisis since the end of World War II.

'HISTORIC MISSION'

It was considered almost certain Khrushchev would review what the Communist Party considers its "historic Mission"—the prevention of thermonuclear war and the promotion of peaceful co-existence. Accordingly, Khrushchev was expected to repeat Soviet readiness for a peaceful Berlin settlement and improved East-West relations.

In a separate report to the 4,354 delegates representing the leaders of world communism Khrushchev later this week will unfold his vision of the "Golden Age of Communist future" and his plans to turn Russia into a utopia within 20 years.

East-West negotiations aimed at easing the Berlin crises were in a state of suspended animation waiting for his speech which is expected to last from six to eight hours and give the Soviet position on everything from nuclear warfare to consumer goods.

RED LEADERS

The party congress is the ultimate constitutional authority for the communist world and has brought to Moscow such Communists as Premitr Chou En-lai of Communist China, Walter Ulbricht of East Germany, Janos Kadar of Hungary and Ho Chi Minh of North Viet Nam.

Those Communist leaders are expected to hold a summit conference of their own during or just after the congress itself. That meeting may be of importance itself because the presence of Chou gave indication a reported split between Peiping and Moscow had been healed.

The Soviet Communist constitution calls for a party congress every four years though this was not always observed during the time of Joseph Stalin. The last congress was in 1956 when Khrushchev emerged as the post-Stalinist leader.

Cool Weather Is Forecast For Tomorrow

Weekend Heat Smashes Marin October Records

The Weather Bureau today promised a break tomorrow in an October heat wave that smashed records in Marin and San Francisco.

The mercury hit 102 degrees yesterday at the San Anselmo downtown firehouse. This was the first time it had reached the 100-degree mark in October since the firehouse began keeping records in 1950.

It was nearly as hot elsewhere in Marin yesterday, with maximum readings of 96 in San Rafael, 92 in Mill Valley, 91 in Novato, 88 in Tamalpais Valley and 86 in Sausalito.

TEMPERATURE READINGS

At noon today, the San Anselma recording was 94. It was 87 in San Rafael, 86 in Novato, 82 in Mill Valley, 82 in Tamalpais Valley and 81 in Sausalito.

San Francisco yesterday recorded a high of 94 degrees, the hottest October day on record—a full 10 degrees above the previous record for Oct. 15, which was set in 1939.

It was even hotter in Southern California, with Long 111 degrees.

BAY FORECAST

The official forecast was for fog this evening to bring some relief from the heat. However, the Weather Bureau said unseasonable warmth may be expected to continue at least through Thursday.

A pressure system composed of warm, moist air from the southeast was responsible for the weekend heat wave which sent Bay Area residents fleeing to mountains and beaches, the Weather Bureau said. Lack of sea breezes kept the temperature high.

Parochial Schools To Be Closed

Marin parochial schools will be closed Wednesday in honor of Archbishop John J. Mitty of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco, who died yesterday.

Some pupils from each of the parochial schools in Marin will be sent to San Francisco tomorrow morning for a special mass for children in tribute to Archbishop Mitty, scheduled for 10:30 a.m. at St. Mary's Cathedral.

Clergy of the archdiocese will attend a mass for the archbishop at 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Mary's. The mass to be attended by Catholic lay organizations will be at the same time Thursday. Solemn funeral services and burial will be Friday.

U.S. Moscow Ambassador Delays Return

WASHINGTON (UPI) — U. S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson has delayed his return to Moscow to attend Allied strategy talks here on Berlin, the State Department said today.

Thompson originally was to have returned to his post for tomorrow's opening of Russia's 22nd Communist Party congress. President John F. Kennedy has indicated Thompson would then resume the process of sounding out Russia on possible Berlin solutions.

Some officials here said the reason for the delay is that Allied talks have been moving slower than planned, and Thompson as yet has no clear picture of where the Allies stand on the question of further talks with the Soviet Union.

State Department press officer I. Lincoln White told newsmen Thompson now may remain in Washington for at least the rest of the week. He said it still is expected the ambassador will go ahead with his "exploratory" talks when he returns to Moscow.

'Payola' Disc Jockey Fined

NEW YORK (UPI) — Disc jockey Peter Tripp was fined $500 today for accepting payola.

A three-judge special sessions court also imposed 35 separate six-month jail sentences but suspended them contingent on Tripp's "future good behavior."

Tripp, 35, a former $45,000-a-year disc pockey at radio station WMGM here, was convicted of commercial bribery for accepting gratuities from record distributors.

Hitch Develops In Cohen Bail

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mickey Gohen's bail bondsman said today a hitch has developed in attempts to free the dapper former gambler from Alcatraz prison on bail.

"Our company back east wants $50,000 more collateral," said the bail bondsman, Abe Phillips. "I feel we've got enough, but the company doesn't."

However, Phillips said attempts were being made by Cohen's family and friends to get together the extra collateral.

Turkey Vote Indicates New Rule By Coalition

ANKARA, Turkey (UPI) — A well - informed government source said today that with almost all the returns in, the Republican People's Party held a plurality in the house of representatives and the Justice Party led in the senate.

Neither party would command a majority in either chamber, however, the source said, and would have to seek a coalition to rule.

According to the source, the Republicans, led by a longtime foe of executed Premier Adnan Menderes, had captured 201 of the 450 house of representatives seats and 60 of the 150 senate seats.

The Justice Party, political heir to the ousted Menderes regime, won 70 senate seats 146 house seats.

The Republican Peasants Nation Party won five senate seats and 40 house seats, while the new Turkey Party won 10 senate and 60 house seats.

These results left only three house and five senate seats still to be decided.

Price Rise Disclosed In College Land Purchase

Secret Meeting Issue Going To Grand Jury

A home and lot across from College of Marin, which the Marin Junior College District board has agreed to buy for $27,500, was sold less than two years ago for $16,500, it was learned today.

This disclosure, and the additional disclosure that the college board has been discussing in closed sessions the purchase of another piece of property, came as Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety announced the matter of possible Brown Act violation in the negotiations would be presented to the county grand jury at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

Garety said, however, after a meeting this morning with representatives of the college board and of the county counsel's office, that it appeared the college trustees had acted in good faith "on advice of the county counsel" in holding the closed sessions.

The college board voted 4-0 (trustee George G. Washburn absent) last Thursday night to "authorize purchase of property at 143 Kent Avenue." It was learned afterward, by questioning of Dr. Stephen E. Eppler, college president and secretary to the board, that this referred to a 10,000-square foot lot and home, with an agreed price tag of $27,500. Epler said the purchase had been under discussion at executive sessions of the board.

Epler said the owner was Mrs. Margaretta Zugsmith.

A check of documents at the county recorder's office today showed owners of the property to be Mrs. Zugsmith and Mrs. Marie A. Carli. They purchased it for $16,500 on Nov. 30, 1959, from Evelyn B. Mangles, who had inherited it from Mrs. Aetna C. Molin, who died on April 4 of that year.

Mrs. Zugsmith declined comment on sale of the property to the college district. She was represented in the sale by Mrs. Erna Volandri of the Kittridge Co. of San Anselmo, real estate brokers, it was learned.

Disclosure that purchase of other property also had been discussed at the college board's secret meetings came when Mrs. Elizabeth M. Deedy, clerk of the board, was subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury tomorrow regarding the "Zugsmith and Garden Spot properties."

It was learned from Larkspur City Hall sources that the college board last month wrote the Larkspur Planning Commission a letter indicating intention to buy property within the city limits. It referred to property adjoining the closed Garden Spot Nursery at 1144 Magnolia Avenue.

The property in question reportedly is owned by the Coleman Estate and Crown Development Co.

Garety conferred this morning with Mrs. Deedy, Epler, president Kent O. Seymour of the college board, and Asst. County Counsel Douglas E. Ma-

McCLURE BEACH RESCUE

Student Hangs On Cliff Three Hours

A 19-year-old University of California student yesterday clung to a sheer cliff over 200 feet above the rocks of McClure Beach at Point Reyes for more than three hours before being hauled to safety.

Daniel Joseph Bryant of El Cerrito started scaling Elephant Rock about 2:30 p.m. with a friend, John Fitzgerald, 18, of Pleasant Hill.

About half-way up the 500-foot rock wall, Bryant "froze." Fitzgerald continued the climb, ran for help and returned with Sheriff's Deputy Robert Bertrand.

Fitzgerald then climbed back down to where Bryant clung to his precarious perch and reassured his friend while Bertrand, with the help of Coastguardsmen and three other men, came down almost the entire length of a 300-foot rope and secured a sling to Bryant's body.

Bryant was hauled to safety just before dark, about 7 p.m. Assisting Bertrand in the rescue were Boatswains Mate Lawrence Dilger and Seaman Ralph English, both of the Point Reyes Coast Guard Station; John and David McClure, Point Reyes ranchers, and Branson Peppers of Inverness, a mechanic at the county garage.

"I knew I wasn't in any real danger as long as I just hung on and didn't try to go up or down," Bryant told the Independent-Journal while having coffee at the McClure Ranch after his ordeal.

"I had one close call while climbing up," he said, adding that the only other time he was frightened was when Fitzgerald came back down. "He was

Big Crusade Drive Starts Tomorrow

The 1961 United Crusade residential campaign will be launched tomorrow as some 3,000 volunteers begin knocking at the doors of homes throughout Marin.

A week's concentrated drive is planned, according to Theodore B. Craig of San Rafael, residential division chairman.

Quota is $40,400, up $5,000 over the amount raised last year and biggest quota of the eight campaign divisions. It represents 31 per cent of the county's Crusade goal of $131,095.

Quotas have been assigned in all areas and range from $7,200 for Greater San Rafael and $5,630 for Mill Valley to $50 and $25 for the smallest West Marin communities.

As the residential drive began, local United Crusade leaders pointed out it is the key to success of the entire campaign. Early returns from the other divisions, in which solicitation began earlier, indicate increased donations from many sources and have resulted in predictions that the campaign has "the best chance of reaching its goad since formation of the United Bay Area Crusade six years ago."

Marin campaigners, Craig said, have been instructed not to call at homes displaying the "We Gave" sticker because this indicates that residents contributed to the campaign through one of the "at work" divisions, including large firms being solicited on a Bay Area-wide basis.

Volunteers received instructions today over television and Radio KTIM. Neighborhood "kaffee klatches" were held throughout the county to hear special programs over KTVU, KQED and KTIM.

Many member agencies which share in local Crusade funds have assumed the responsibility of covering specific areas.

The plan of assigning specific areas to member agencies originated in Marin and has been copied in other counties belonging to the United Bay Area Crusade.

Areas assigned to member agencies include: San Rafael, Catholic Social Service; San Anselmo, Camp Fire Girls; Fairfax, YMCA; Mill Valley, Girl Scouts; Terra Linda, Marin Jewish Community Center; South Novato, YWCA; Ross, Family Service Agency; Kentfield, Sunny Hills; Greenbrae-Bon Air, Children's Home Society; Larkspur, Catholic Youth Organization; Marin City, Marin Council of Community Services; Sausalito, Tiburon Peninsula and Belvedere, Red Cross.

Areas not assigned to agencies include Corte Madera, parts of Novato, Marinwood, Loma Verde, San Rafael Meadows, Santa Venetia, and communities west of Fairfax and Mill Valley. Individual volunteers will cover these areas.

WHAT'S THIS? HALLOWEEN ALREADY?

A Halloween witch arrived early today in San Anselmo. But the witch (Mrs. Pat Mann of 145 Butterfield Road) wasn't confused about the date of Halloween. She just wanted to be sure she was on time for San Anselmo Bargain Days, which will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday by Hub City merchants. Ready to march with the broomstick-riding witch in a Halloween parade at 8:30 a.m. Saturday as a feature of the event are her youngsters, Ricky and Gail Mann. Mozart Kaufman (left) and Arthur W. PLANE MISSING

Air Defense Test Called Successful

WASHINGTON (AP)—The disappearance of a bomber carrying eight men has marred an otherwise highly successful major test of North American air defenses.

The B52-G jet was one of more than 2,250 U.S., Canadian and British planes that participated Saturday in the 12-hour mock aerial war, Sky Shield II. The North American Air Defense Command said: "The exercise was 99.9 per cent effective, and the results were as good as we could possibly expect."

The eight-jet bomber, attached to Seymour Johnson Air Force Base at Goldsboro, N.C., was believed to have run out of fuel. Air and surface craft swept a wide area in the Atlantic in search of the plane.

After the defense test ended at midnight Saturday, commercial air travel resumed across the continent. Except for mercy flights and a few other essential ones, no civilian planes were allowed to cross the skies during the mock war. Most of the larger airports in the United States reported passenger increases of 20 per cent or more on both Friday, the day before the exercise, and yesterday.

The exercise began with a simulated mass missile attack. Then more than 200 U.S. Strategic Air Command and British Royal Air Force bombers playing the role of "enemy" planes bored in for a follow-up assault. American and Canadian jets roared aloft in more than 6,000 sorties to head them off.

At the end of the test, an official at the air command headquarters at Colorado Springs, Colo., said, "The warning systems worked like a charm."

Refugees Arrive

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Forty-five Cuban refugees, 18 of them children, arrived in Miami today after a Coast Guard rescue off the Bahamas island of Cay Sal with a U.S. destroyer standing by.

A destroyer sped to the scene after reports that a Cuban boat had fired on the small, leaking craft bearing the refugees. But refugee arrivals in Miami said they heard no shots.

The women and children were taken to a Miami hotel. The 21 men aboard were detained by immigration authorities for questioning.

One Of FBI's 'Most Wanted' Is Captured

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — To some, Hugh Bion Morse, confessed killer of three women and one of the FBI's "10 most wanted men" until his capture, was a charmer, a hard worker, "handsome and gentle."

To others he was a child molester, a "sex diviate," and "Jekyll and Hyde," who bragged about the victims he assaulted then beat to death or strangled.

Police said Morse boastfully admitted killing St. Paul social worker Carol Ronan, and two other women in Spokane, Wash.

Birmingham, Ala., police officers were en route here today to question Morse about the death of a Birmingham woman last July.

St. Paul police chief Lester McCauliffe said Morse, while undergoing lie-dector tests yesterday, told of breaking into a Birmingham apartment.

Morse was charged with second degree murder in the slaying of Miss Ronan. Ramsey County Atty. William Randall said he will present the case to the grand jury tomorrow.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Rayburn Condition

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — House Speaker Sam Rayburn, 79, remained seriously ill with incurable cancer today after a weekend during which he weakened and then rallied.

The Texas Democrat has been at Baylor Hospital since Oct. 2.

In its morning bulletin yesterday the hospital said Rayburn's condition was "only fair," that he seemed weaker and had "periods of confusion."

Work By Wednesday?

DETROIT (AP)—The Ford Motor Co. aimed today at having its 120,000 production workers back at their jobs by Wednesday, the United Auto Workers yesterday having ordered local unions to call off strikes at all but two of Ford's 85 plants.

There was doubt, however, just how far Ford could go without settlement at one of the two plants still struck—the Walton Hills stamping plant outside Cleveland, Ohio, which employs 3,300 and makes pressed metal parts for all of Ford's car divisions.

Viet Troops?

HONOLULU (AP)—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor apparently would recommend sending U.S. troops to South Viet Nam only as a last resort to save that key Southeast Asian nation from communism.

This was the indication today as President John F. Kennedy's personal military adviser paused here for a day of conferences before resuming his fact-finding mission taking him halfway around the world.

A final decision on whether to recommend the use of U.S. troops in South Viet Nam awaits the results of what may be a two or three-week personal study on the scene.

Scout Rocket

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Scout rocket designed to climb 4,500 miles in one hour will be fired this week. Its aim: to explore the ionosphere and send back important data for radio communications and for the tracking and guidance of space craft.

The solid fuel Scout, a four-stage rocket 72 feet high and weighing more than 18 tons, will be launched from Wallops Island, Va. It will carry aloft a 94-pound package of instruments.

Saturn Shot Set

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —Scientists plan to launch this week the first Saturn superrocket on an eight-minute flight which will start the United States on the long road to manned landings on the moon.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reports the firing will take place within a few days if no problems arise. With 1.3 million pounds of thrust — about 30 million horsepower—the first Saturn is three times more powerful than any previous U.S. rocket.

The maiden flight will test the first stage only. Two upper stages will be filled with 23,000 gallons of water to simulate weight of the operational rocket.

The flight plan calls for the 162-foot, 462-ton Saturn to accelerate to a speed of 3,700 miles an hour during the 1 minute 57 seconds burning time of its eight big engines. In that time it will consume 300 tons of fuel.

Islanders In Africa

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—The 260 islanders of Tristan da Cunha, dispossessed by a volcano, arrived in Cape Town today for their first bewildering contact with the 20th Century world.

They arrived aboard the Dutch liner Tjisadane, which picked them up from neighboring Nightingale Island in the Atlantic after their island was shattered.

Trouble Again

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A Jewish couple, who earlier this year told police they had been the victims of anti-semitic persecution for 15 months, say they are being tormented again.

William Bowman complained yesterday that stones and bottles were hurled against his house and eggs smashed against his car Saturday night.

In July, 12 youths were indicted on charges of persecuting the couple.

Discoverer Caught

HONOLULU (AP) — An elite group of airmen who haul flying trapezes through the sky to snare capsules which have orbited in outer space have made six such catches, the latest Saturday.

Capt. Warren C. Schensted, 32, of Glenwood, Minn., commanded the JC-130 turboprop which caught the precious 110-pound payload of Discoverer 32 at 9,000 feet.

The polar-orbiting capsule, fired aloft from Vandenberg Air Force Base contained a variety of items to determine the effect of exposure to space radiation.

Crag Conquered

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK (AP)—A 1,900-foot granite crag, the Leaning Tower, has been scaled for the first time by three climbers.

The trio, led by Warren Harding, 38, Sacramento, went up in eight days and reached the top Friday. They came down in 15 hours, on Saturday.

The granite formation overhangs an average of 10 degrees.

Harding was joined in the conquest by Allan MacDonald, 23, Berkeley, and Glen Denny, 22, Livingston.

MacDonald said, "We lived two days on nine dried apricots each and slept one night on a one-foot ledge."

Finn Chief Arrives

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Urho Kekkonen of Finland arrived here today for the first American visit of a Finnish chief of state.

He was greeted by President John F. Kennedy, who praised the Finnish people for their "courage, fortitude and perseverance."

Without once mentioning the fact that the Finns live in the shadow of the neighboring Soviet Union, Kennedy said Finland was to be praised for maintaining "her own freedom, her own integrity, in a troubled world."

Boy, 16, Kills Two

COOPERSTOWN, N.Y. (UPI)— A 16-year-old boy shot and killed two companions Saturday because they had been "picking on him," state police said today.

The boy, Charles Warner, was shot and seriously wounded by state policemen at Big Moose Lake in the Adirondacks yesterday. He was carrying three weapons and a large amount of ammunition.

Warner, a high school freshman was listed in fair condition with wounds of the back, leg and right shoulder.

"All the boy says is that he shot the boys because they were picking on him," a state police officer said.

Blocked In Berlin

BERLIN (UPI) — Communist police today barred six West Berlin construction workers from traveling to the tiny American enclave of Steinstuecken to build a new road there.

The workers were refused passage through one mile of East German territory separating the village of 159 persons from the American Sector of Berlin, West Berlin police reported.

Plane Belly Lands

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI)—A prop-jet Electra plane with stuck landing gear and 49 persons on board made an emergency landing on a cushion of foam at Carswell Air Force Base today. Nobody was hurt. The plane was slightly damaged.

The plane was bound from Dallas to Chicago.

It flew in circles over Dallas for five hours before setting down at Carswell.

Peace Corps Gets Black Eye In Nigeria

IBADAN, Nigeria (AP) — A postcard that went astray has given the American Peace Corps its first black eye in the field.

Nigerian university students demanded yesterday that the corps unit sent to teach Nigerians be expelled because of criticism in this year-old African republic written by an enthusiastic — but "thoughtless" girl in the group.

Her postcard home, dropped accidentally on the campus, stirred 1,000 students at Ibadan University College to an angry demonstration.

Margery Michelmore, 23, Smith College honor graduate from Foxboro, Mass., quickly apologized to the university authorities for writing the "thoughtless card" and offered to resign from the corps.

Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver said in Washington he talked to the Nigerian embassador and "he did not seem disturbed."

The anti-American demonstration was organized after someone reportedly had found on the campus grounds the postcard that Miss Michelmore had written to a friend in Boston telling him: "With all the training we had, we were really not prepared for the squalor and absolutely primitive living conditions rampant both in the cities and the bush.

"We had had no idea about what 'underdeveloped' means. It really is a revelation, and once we got over the initial, horrified shock, it is a very rewarding experience."

The most popular rocking chair with Victorian ladies was Michael Thonet's bentwood rocker with cane seat and back in elaborate curved frame.

Pakistan Camel Cart Driver Gets Big Welcome In Texas

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)— Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson plans today to give a Pakistan camel cart driver the same giltedge treatment that has charmed heads of nations.

Bashir Ahmad, 44, who sports a flowing black mustache, and Johnson arrived at the latter's central Texas ranch last night. London fog and the grounding of American civil flights in Sky Shield II combined to cause a delay of almost 12 hours.

The camel driver was whisked to the ranch house in a jeep flying the Pakistan flag.

"Ranchers and cattlemen here do not use camels, but we are familiar with the problems that face your country," Johnson told Bashir. "When you return, I hope you will feel much closer to the American people."

The vice president planned to take Bashir on a tour similar to sightseeing trips given President Kennedy, German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, Pakistan President Ayub Khan, and Mexico's President Adolfo Lopez Mateos. Bashir's trip originally was scheduled for July 4 but was delayed until after the visit of the Pakistan president.

McGuffey Reader Use Stirs Up Controversy

TWIN LAKES, Wis. (UPI)—The Twin Lakes School Board was scheduled to decide tonight whether to keep the 82-year-old McGuffey reader as an elementary school textbook and risk loss of its state school aid grants.

State school superintendent Angus Rothwell has said he 'can and will" cut off state aid to Twin Lakes schools if the board continues to order use of the 19th Century instruction classic to teach reading.

Rothwell was backed by county school superintendent Mrs. Margaret Gustafson, who said, "The McGuffey readers have to go."

Rothwell described the McGuffeys as totally out of date" and lacking all the developments that have been made in reading over the last 50 years." He claimed 20 pages of the book violated constitutional bans on all religious instruction in schools.

Rothwell also said the McGuffeys have several untruths in their pages, contain grammatical errors and archaic words.

Board members responded to Rothwell's charges by tearing out or pasting over the offending passages.

Four of the five board members voted to reintroduce the McGuffey readers in August, contending they are the only books available that teach reading by the phonetic method.

Lovell Avenue Sign Petitions

The Mill Valley City Council will hear a petititon at its meeting Wednesday asking that the "no parking" restriction be removed from the 100 and 200 blocks of Lovell Avenue.

"No Parking" signs were put up about a month ago after citizens protested about narrowness of the street and danger to children walking home from school.

The petiton, which was circulated by Mrs. Dyer C. Bennett of 218 Lovell Avenue and has 19 signatures, says the present situation is a hardship to those looking for a parking place. Petitioners have asked for signs to read "Slow, Narrow Road."

Blaze Hits Greenbrae Debris Pile

A dump piled with brush and discarded building materials, about a quarter-mile south of the Bon Air Shopping Center in Greenbrae, caught fire last night and firemen were unable to drown the blaze.

Larkspur firemen got the call at 8:05 p.m. and responded with three trucks and 19 men. Kentfield fire department aided with one truck and three men. Fire chief George Bartram said water was poured on the smouldering debris until 11 p.m.; but firemene were unable to completely put it out.

GOOD FISHING SPOT—HE FOUND LARGE TOOTH

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Earl Faucett said he was walking along a creek bed fishing when he stepped on a hard object.

University of Alabama geologists examined the object and said it was a tooth from a mammoth—an animal that lived before the ice age and resembled an elephant.

The age of the huge tooth was estimated as between 12,000 and 500,000 years.

Most mammoth remains have been found in Alaska and Siberia.

Faucett, of nearby Bradford, Ala., isn't saying where he found the tooth. He said he caught 12 bass that day, and he doesn't want a good fishing spot spoiled.

Wreck Puts Three In Hospital

A three-car accident yesterday at 10:15 a.m. in Tamalpais Valley earned one driver a citation for speeding and sent three persons, two of them children, to the hospital with minor injuries.

The California Highway Patrol, reported John Eric Nysven, 19, a hod carrier of San Francisco, stopped his car on State Highway 1 at Ross Drive to allow another car to make a turn.

A second car driven by Anita Doris Beisel, 35, of Lafayette, stopped close behind Nysven's car. A third vehicle, driven by Anthony Griffin, 25, a Berkeley attorney, crashed into the rear of her car, slamming it into the car ahead of her.

Griffin was cited for speeding. Mrs. Beisel and her two passengers, Denise Mozetti, 8, and Michael, 7, were released from Marin General Hospital after being X-rayed for neck injuries.

Marin Taxable Transactions Still Increasing

Taxable transactions and sales continued on the increase in Marin County for the third consecutive quarter as opposed to a corresponding statewide downward trend for the same period, according to the 1961-second-quarter report issued by the State Board of Equalization.

Taxable transactions in Marin for the second quarter this year amounted to $42,215,000, an increase of 3.3 per cent from the level of sales in the second quarter of 1960.

Statewide statistics showed some drops in sales.

Statewide the greatest percentage losses were sustained by used car dealers and candy stores each with sales 12.7 per cent below those of the preceding year. The greatest dollar loss of any class of business was experienced by new car dealers, whose sales were six per cent lower than last year.

New car dealers in Marin County, however, showed the greatest dollar profit of any other single type business in the county. They led the field in durable goods which tended to show total gains over non-durable goods, a reversal of the statewide trend.

Artist Found Dead In Auto On Mt. Tam

The body of a San Francisco artist who formerly worked for a Sausalito dress shop was found yesterday in an automobile on a lonely Mount Tamalpais road, an apparent suicide.

He was Alan D. Frances, 33. Beside his body was a note which read, in part:: "I have found a beautiful place to leave this world. I am very tired."

The body was discovered about 10:30 a.m. by Joseph Zappella, fire patrolman for Marin Municipial Water District. Zappella told Sheriff's deputies he had seen the car, on Ridgecrest Road near the Mountain Theater on Saturday. Thinking it had been parked by hikers, he did not investigate until he saw it again yesterday, he said.

Deputy Cororer William Bradley said Frances appeared to have been dead for three or four days. Death was apparently caused by carbon monoxide, piped into the car through a garden hose from the tail pipe.

The suicide note gave the name of a friend in San Francisco whom Frances wished notified of his death.

The body was being held at Russell and Gooch Mortuary in Mill Valley pending funeral arrangements.

Pollution Board Meets Wednesday

Marin County Agricultural Commissioner Richard T. Straw said today he will ask that the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District make no new restrictions on stubble, flood control and brush control burning when its directors meet Wednesday in San Francisco.

The district board called the meeting for 10 a.m. Wednesday at 1480 Mission Street, San Francsico, to take a new look at several amendments to its regulations.

Straw said any new restriction on stubble burning on filled land would work a particular hardship on Marin County. When the brush is plowed under instead of being burned it fails to decompose and nothing will grow in the soil for some time, he said.

After the meeting, he said it appeared from what he had been told that the college trustees "acted in good faith on advice of the county counsel" in holding secret sessions, at which they discussed land acquisition, in July, September, and last week.

Mrs. Deedy, as clerk of the board, and Ralph Chatoian, Independent - Journal reporter who attended last week's meeting at which the secret deal came to light, were subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury. Epler and Maloney were invited, although not served with subpoenaes. Both said they intended to be present.

Violation of the Brown Act, under an amendment adopted by this year's legislature, is a misdemeanor.

The Brown Act provides that "all meetings of the legislative body of a local agency shall be open and public, and all persons shall be permitted to attend any meeting of the legislative body of a local agency, except as otherwise provided in this chapter."

The only exception provided is for executive sessions "to consider the appointment, employment or dismissal of a public officer or employee or to hear complaints or charges brought against such officer or employee."

An opinion of the attorney general has held that the act does not impair the traditional attorney-client relationship and therefore the public agency's legislative body may confer in private with its attorney regarding litigation. This exception is not contained in the act itself.

The Brown Act defines "legislative body" as the "governing board, commission, directors or body of a local agency, or any board or commission thereof," and further states it "shall include any board, commission, committee, or other body on which officers of a local agency serve in their official capacity as members and which is supported in whole or in part by funds provided by such agency."

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

New Moisturizing Colonaid Stops

CONSTIPATION DUE TO DEHYDRATION

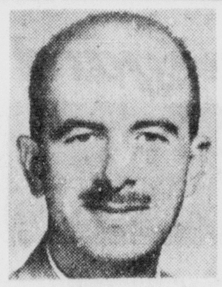
without gag, bloat or gripe

Most constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that loses so much moisture that its contents become so dry they block the bowel; so shrunken they fail to stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be remoistened. Second, bulk must be brought to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE colon to action; to a normal urge to purge. And, of all laxatives, only new COLONAID possesses its great moisturizing capacity plus its stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so gentle it has been hospital-proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.

It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation overnight. So, for positive relief from constipation, get amazing, moisturizing new COLONAID today! INTRODUCTORY SIZE 43¢



Spinal Defects Termed Overlooked Illness Cause

by Dr. Robert W. Pearce

Have you tried everything for your aches and pains and still found no cure? The reason you continue to suffer may be an overlooked cause of illness.

Recently, for example, German medical men reported spinal defects in 86 of 100 ulcer patients. These doctors also reported remarkable recoveries of health when the spinal defects were corrected.

Chiropractors, for many years, have been calling attention to spinal defects in persons with ulcers, heart trouble, arthritis and many other ailments.

What is the relationship between the spine and health? All cells, organs and muscles are controlled by the nervous system. The spine protects the nerves as they flow from the body to various parts of the body.

A spine that is out of line often pinches vital nerves as they branch out through spinal openings.

Chiropractors are specialists in correcting spinal defects and should be consulted at least once a year.

Dr. R. W. Pearce, D.C., practices the Palmer Method. His office is at 1628 Fifth Ave., San Rafael, GL 3-6201 (Adv.)

Marin's Bay Shoreline Is Great Undeveloped Asset

We can all agree that nature has endowed Marin with an abundance of attractions and advantages.

Our climate, our rolling hills, our native trees and shrubs all are appropriately recognized and respected — at least by most of us.

But we sometimes wonder if the same can be said of our bay shoreline. We have mountain parks and ocean beach parks, but we still do not have any public preservation of bay shoreline property — at least none of much consequence, with the exception of the Audubon Society preserve on Richardson Bay.

Much of the commercial development along our bay waterfront has been pretty unattractive. This is a pity because the potential is so great. And although some are reluctant to accept the fact, commercial development can be quite attractive and provide enjoyment for future generations, too.

Over the years, San Rafael booster groups including the Chamber of Commerce and city officialdom, including the planning commission, have recognized the waterfront potential. From time to time efforts have been undertaken to bring some appropriate development of both public and private facilities. But these efforts up to now have mostly died a-borning.

Recently the chamber reactivated the Harbor Development Committee, a move we welcomed in this space not long ago.

Comes now the planning commission with a request to owners of 1,000 acres of waterfront property to prepare a master plan for its development. This too is a welcome development; first it is good news that developers are at last interested and second it is good news that the planning commission is taking steps to insure that the development is properly planned.

We hope that this may be just the beginning of the ultimate development of our waterfront as a valuable asset for the county, leading to fuller enjoyment and utilization of the bay shoreline by all.

You Can Help Crusade Solicitor

United Crusade door-to-door solicitation commences in Marin County tomorrow.

And there are a few straws in the wind indicating that the county may reach or surpass its 1961 quota of $131,095 in short order.

The first dozen or so special gifts received this year were 20 per cent more than the gifts of the same donors last year.

Fairfax small business drive doubled last year's contributions.

Even the Grape Festival — not directly related to the United Crusade — experienced its biggest "take" in history this year.

There are some things we can do—as well as make a generous contribution—to help with the Crusade this year.

People who already have given at work should be sure their "We Gave" stickers are posted at home. This spares them the necessity of answering the door when the Crusade solicitor comes. Further, it saves the Crusade volunteer an unnecessary call.

The volunteers hope to complete the residential calls within a week. Residents who have their contribution figured out and are ready when the solicitor calls will help meet the deadline.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Just Like Cartoon Where Bulb Lights Up Over Little Man's Head

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The human body is a natural power plant. The blood cells of the average man contain enough electricity to light a 25-watt bulb for about three minutes.

Prosperity note: Americans now spend about as much on tobacco and alcoholic beverages as they do on schools—some 15 billion dollars a year.

Even a dog's life is getting more expensive. It now costs from $95 to $150 to raise a puppy, depending on its breed and appetite.

One way to get ahead: Giacomo Puccini, composer of "La Boheme," "Madam Butterfly" and other noted operas, gave this as his success formula: "I am almost always in love."

Philatelic oddity: Great Britain and Russia never print the full name of their country on their stamps.

The strange smell of distress: Doctors have found that many victims of schizophrenia, the most prevalent mental disease, have a characteristic odor, which helps in the diagnosis of their psychosis.

Beauty is a matter of opinion and varies from country to country and age to age. Some Congolese tribes scar their faces and bodies elaborately for decorative purposes. And tightly bind the heads of infants to give them an elongated skull—another mark of handsomeness.

Executive signs: On the desk of insurance tycoon Elmer Leterman: "Luck is preparation meeting opportunity."

You think you're having trouble with your family budget? The federal government in the last eight years collected 53 billion dollars more in revenue than it did in the previous 164 years—from George Washington through Harry S. Truman. In those same eight years it also borrowed—and spent—an additional 23 billion dollars.

HOW DO YOU buy gasoline? A survey showed the largest number of motorists say, "fill 'er up." But 25 per cent buy by the dollar, $2 worth most often, and 5 per cent by the gallon, usually five gallons.

Wisecrack of the week: Actor Oscar Homolka says he knows a hypochondriac who had such a wonderful time at a health resort he's never going back.

TIP TO WEALTHY wives: Dirty diamonds looks smaller. Your diamonds will look larger and brighter and impress the neighbors more if you clean them regularly in a solution of detergent and hot water.

It was Robert Frost who observed, "a man will sometimes devote all his life to the development of one part of his body—the wishbone."

Protest Will Have Opposite Effect

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Mr. Ballinger's protest (I-J, Oct. 9) of Superintendent Hollis' speeches on "Communism in the Schools" and of the attempt to show a film titled "Our American Heritage," should have an opposite effect than that which is apparently intended, serving rather to reassure those parents who missed the original news item, that they did not elect a subversive as school superintendent.

Blasting Business Is Frightening

EDITOR
Independent-Journal

In the last few days the Independent-Journal has become an eminent spokesman for bomb shelters, judging from the amount of coverage given the subject.

Little or no space has been devoted to plans for peace. Are we to conclude that no plans for peace are being considered by our government or its peoples and that we are doomed to war and destruction or are we to conclude that "Marin's Leading Newspaper" is more interested in bomb shelters than peace.

If I and many other Marinites are to feel safe and secure in our little holes in the ground, perhaps you or your readers could answer a few questions:

1—What do we do after two weeks if another bomb is dropped? Our food will be gone and there won't be anything to eat if we do survive.

2—If no bomb is dropped when we emerge, what uncontaminated food will be available?

3—What assurance do we have that a shelter plan will really work? Not too many months ago an evacuation plan was considered "the only way to survive" and then reality began to dawn and the absurdity of such a program was recognized.

Call me conservative and unprogressive if you will, but I should like to see the beauty of Marin and the rest of the country along with its inhabitants preserved as is. I don't like progress in armaments and I don't consider the architecture of underground dwellings as progress for either the arts or humanity.

And this whole blasting business has me frightened to death.

America Respects Dignity Of Man

EDITOR
Independent-Journal

Today (Oct. 11) I was privileged to see the motion picture entitled "Question 7" which describes conditions in East Berlin.

This story based on actual incidents dramatically depicts the tyranny under which people must live under Soviet domination.

I can readily understand why this picture has received numerous awards. It makes me glad to live in America under a system which respects the dignity of man.

I hope this excellent film with a message for all Americans will be shown in Marin theaters very soon. I recommend it wholeheartedly.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Phil Harris had an erudite friend who had lost professorships at three universities because he could not resist hard liquor. Picked up for being under the influence one night, he was sentenced to ten days in the cooler by a tough justice of the peace, who grumbled, "Have you anything further to say before my officers lock you up?"

"Indeed I have, your Honor," bumbled Harris' friend. "Man's inhumanity to man has been the subject of many an immortal dissertation. Look at you, banishing me to a cold cell! Why? I'm neither so intemperate as Bobby Burns, so debased as Poe, so chicken-livered as Tennyson, nor so vulgar as Shakespeare—"

"That'll do," interrupted the j.p. "Take him away officer. And get a list of those names he just mentioned and bring them in here. They sound worse than him!"

In the heart of New York's Ulster County, Marilyn Ross saw this sign dangling in the front window of a justice of the peace: "Are you fit to be tied?"

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Pentagon Appears Oblivious To Kennedy's Announced Policies

THE FANTASTIC and incredible word from the Pentagon is that "a sharp reduction in troops is likely if the Berlin crisis recedes."

Are the Secretary of Defense and the Director of the Bureau of the Budget in communication with the President of the United States — and vice versa?

Aren't they aware:

That the over-riding premise of the President's military manpower build-up is to deal not only with the Berlin crisis but with the whole global challenge of the Communist bloc?

That our over-riding purpose is to deter Communist expansion, not just to turn back one threat at one point in one place?

That the build-up of our military strength is an instrument of diplomacy as much as an instrument of defense and that if we proceed to whittle down a few months after we have started to build it up, we throw away the very position of strength which Mr. Kennedy has told the American people must be sustained over a long, hard and uncertain period?

EVERYBODY KNOWS that Defense Secretary Robert McNamara is a forceful, decisive, lucid official. Therefore, he must be aware of all these things. But then it is all the more incomprehensible for the Defense Department to plan such an ill-considered inconsistent, self-defeating step which would be a reversal of everything this Administration has said and done.

If Mr. McNamara is just the victim of the gremlins in the Budget Bureau, he can be counted on to repair this planned calamity. But if he isn't, then I fail to see how President Kennedy can support his decision and square it with the speech of July 25, 1961.

Was the authorization of a 1,000,000-man army even primarily to cope with Berlin? Mr. Kennedy said no.

"The threat is world-wide," he told the country. "Our effort must be equally wide and strong, and must not be obsessed by a single manufactured crisis."

But the word from the Pentagon is that "a sharp reduction in troops is likely if the Berlin crisis recedes."

Is Berlin the only crisis which required the Army build-up? Mr. Kennedy said no.

"There is also," he said, "a challenge in Southeast Asia . . . We face a challenge in our own hemisphere and wherever else the freedom of human beings is at stake." He could have mentioned the uncertainties in the Middle East, the latest Soviet threat to Iran.

IN ANNOUNCING a 125,000-man increase—not a very massive increase—in the Army, the President stated: ". . . We need the capability . . . to meet all levels of aggressor pressure with whatever levels of force are required We intend to have a wider choice than humiliation or all-out nuclear action."

Do we get that choice by planning to cut back the Army before we have really built it up?

At another point the President declared: ". . . I intend to take as time goes on whatever steps are necessary to make certain that such forces can be deployed at the appropriate time without lessening our ability to meet other militar yneeds."

How, I should like to ask, do you get ready to "deploy forces" which you are planning to disband?

I WISH TO BE completely fair to the new cut-the-Army planners within the Administration. The news story from the Pentagon put a condition besides a quieting in Berlin on the projected "sharp reduction in troops." The other condition was that "no major crisis developed elsewhere."

Does this justify the cut back of the Army from the modest new level the President authorized only three months?

Not if Mr. Kennedy meant what he said—and I am sure he did. He said that the military build-up was "aimed at avoiding" and averting crises, not just putting them down.

There is something very wrong here and I think the country will hope that President Kennedy wins his argument with his subordinates.

Bus Carries 70 Lively Youngsters From Sausalito School To Forts

BEE-LIKE, the 70 kids babbled aboard bus No. 2 as it rolled down Sausalito's Bridgeway headed for the forts. There was no end of words. Everybody had plenty. Free. Free. Free.

"I've got them sitting up front, the noisy ones," said driver Alfred Quartararo. "They are all noisy but some are worse." He smiled.

"Pooch" Quartararo. "Half a century in Sausalito," he said. "I was born here."

"Pooch," he said, is the name he got when, as a boy, he acted the part of Puccinelli in a play.

He makes the trip three times a day to the forts beyond the tunnel, 15 minutes to Barry and about 30 minutes to Cronkhite. Fifty-five minutes round trip. He's been driving 15 years.

With him on the 3 o'clock run was Merl Willmshen, assistant supervisor of buildings and grounds and relief driver.

The words hit the yellow walls and bounced off the windows . Musical but offbeat.

We turned to a freckled boy who turned out to be John Morey, fourth grader, who lives at Fort Cronkhite. "Do you like to ride the bus?" we asked. "Not too much."

His seat partner was Mike Furr, an eighth grader. "Will you go to Tam next year?" "No, I won't be here next year." "Where will you be?" "I don't know where I'll be." He said a tour for his father is between two and three years.

BETWEEN THE CURVES and the chatter the kids exploded before our eyes like popcorn. Seventy, all talky. There was Mike's sister, Debbie, carrying crutches, said she had tripped over a stone when running after the bell rang.

There was Rosemary Howington who said "riding a bus to school is new to me. In Germany, I walked." Said she took German lessons every day.

Willie Callahan said he was born in Germany. "I love school," he said. Albert Naudin, sixth grader, also lived in Germany. "The bus ride is too noisy," said Albert.

Now we were entering the tunnel and the noise seemed to expand.

"Where did you get the red hair?" we asked Clifford Catron, fourth grader. "From my grandpa," he said. Catron had his trombone, said he takes music lessons. Larry Lawrence, a Cronkhiter, said he'd lived there six years. Cleveland Ward said there were four kids in his family and he liked the bus "fine."

Dolores Roque, whose brother, John, sat across the aisle, wore a red sweater, said she lived on Okinawa before coming to the fort.

THE ONLY STANDEE was Bill Morey, bus patrol. He keeps order. "Are they good or bad?" we asked. "Half good, half bad."

The children said they see deer, raccoons, skunks, birds and snakes along the route. Catron said "Me and him caught a raccoon."

Michael Morey, fifth grader, said there are seven Morey children, six in school. "Like school?" "Fine."

We drove across Rodeo Lagoon. It was raining and the land and buildings were gray in the mist. "What do you do here, any fishing?" "We fish in the lagoon."

"The skunks come out at night," said Bill Proctor.

Met Steve Draper, seventh grade. "Like school?" "No," he said, smiling.

AND THEN the bus was empty except for "Pooch," Willmshen and myself. It was deathly still. I mentioned to "Pooch" the scary, insecure feeling I had in all the silence. He said, "This is a quiet bunch. Last year we had some noisy ones."

The bus rumbled back, lonely-like, through the rain. The tunnel, South Street, Main, Bridgeway to Bayside School. "Too quiet," we said to ourselves and said goodbye to Willmshen and "Pooch."

BIG JIM GREER, California highway patrolman, was going 80 miles an hour down Alto Hill on his motorcycle chasing a speeder the other day. His cycle, M-1636, was "one that vibrates excessively" and suddenly his badge "blew right out of his jacket holder and into space."

Greer said "I did not look back to see where it landed. I was faced immediately with the problem of the badge or the violator. I chose the violator and stopped him on Waldo Grade. It was the first badge I lost in 10 years," said Greer.

49ers Overpower Vikings, 38-24

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (UPI)—"That was a long afternoon" according to San Francisco 49er head coach Red Hickey. He was talking about the 38-24 victory over Minnesota here yesterday.

San Francisco's fabled shotgun offense sputtered for nearly two periods before 49er Bill Kilmer fired both barrels to sink the Vikings.

Hickey said his offensive line played its best game of the season. He particularly commended halfback J. B. Smith, who gobbled key yardage in the 49er touchdown marches. "He is the greatest football player in action today," Hickey said.

Halfback Hugh McElhenny, a 49er until Minnesota picked him up in the National Football League player pool last season, sparked the Vikings in unleashing an offensive show of their own.

He scored twice for the Minnesotans, once on a 13-yard blast around end and again on a 32-yard broken field jaunt on which seven of his old teammates had a shot at him.

The "shotgun," triggered by quarterbacks Kilmer, Bob Waters and John Brodie, rolled up 540 yards total offense. Kilmer said his line was "really cracking. They were opening big holes. You just couldn't help but get through."

And get through he did. Kilmer carried the ball across the goal line four times, all in the second half.

The score was tied 24-24 after three periods, but in the fourth period Hickey's offensive innovation was able to move almost at will.

Viking coach Norm Van Brocklin said, "it wasn't the defense that hurt us, it was the offensive line. It knocked the blazes out of us."

Van Brocklin said Hickey had the "horses" to work with. "We did alright for quite a while but we just didn't have enough horses to defend against it."

Fumbles helped stall the 49ers in the first half. In all, San Francisco lost the ball six times. Viking Rich Mostardi nailed two San Francisco passes to stop a pair of other thrusts in the first half.

San Francisco had hoped to establish a modern NFL record of three straight shutouts yesterday.

Clyde Conner, San Francisco offensive end, was injured early in the third period. He was taken to Northwestern Hospital in Minneapolis where doctors said he had suffered a brain concussion.

A hospital spokesman said he was in "satisfactory condition." However, it was not known how long he would be hospitalized.

Packers' Great 1-2-3 Punch Flattens Browns; Colts Lose

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

If there ever was a more devastating 1-2-3 backfield punch in pro football than Paul Hornung, Jim Taylor and Bart Starr, the Green Bay Packers would like to know about it.

Their names may not yet be as glamorized as Luckman-McAfee-Standlee of the 1941 Bears; Trippi-Harder-Angsman of the '48 Cardinals or Graham-Motley-Jones of Cleveland's great champions of 10 years ago.

But if you asked the stunned Cleveland Browns today, they'd tell you that Packers' backfield trio is plain dynamite.

The Packers made a shambles of what had been billed as the National Football League's "game of the week" when they routed the Browns, 49-17, Sunday before a crowd of 75,042 at Cleveland.

LEADING GAINER

Taylor, the N.F.L.'s leading rusher, piled up 158 yards in 21 carries to gain more ground yardage than the entire Browns team. He scored four touchdowns, two on runs of 25 and 45 yards, and now has a running average of 6.4 yards for 81 carries.

Starr, once regarded as something of a mediocrity as a quarterback, completed 15 out of 17 throws for a total of 266 yards. He now has a flossy 61.7 passing percentage that is tops in the league.

In between these efforts, Hornung did his normal day's work of ball-carrying, kicking and blocking. He went over for one touchdown and kicked seven conversions to swell his league-leading scoring total to 77 points.

And in case you don't know the fourth man in that backfield, he's Boyd Dowler, a flanker who caught a pair of long passes good for 56 yards.

BROWNS FLOUNDER

All this time, the Browns, regarded as a title contender in the Eastern Division, floundered like semi-pros. Their only score in the first half was a 27-yard field goal by Lou Groza and they trailed 28-3 before Milt Plum threw a pair of futile late scoring passes.

The victory kept the Packers tied for first place in the Western Division with the San Francisco 49ers, who also ran their record to 4-1 by beating the Minnesota Vikings, 38-24.

The champion Philadelphia Eagles and New York Giants emerged on top of the Eastern Division with comparatively easy road victories. Philadelphia defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 20-7, and the Giants beat the Dallas Cowboys, 31-10.

In other games, the Pittsburgh Steelers won for the first time this year when they beat the winless Washington Redskins, 20-0; the Chicago Bears defeated the Baltimore Colts, 24-10, and the Detroit Lions edged the Los Angeles Rams, 14-13.

GALIMORE ROMPS

At Chicago, Willie Galimore broke up a close game when he caught Ed Brown's screen pass and raced 84 yards for a third-period touchdown against the Colts before 48,719 fans. The Colts and Johnny Unitas sprang a "shotgun" offense but it produced only one touchdown and sputtered within scoring range.

Substitute quarterback Jim Ninowsky and fullback Nick Pietrosante combined their talents in a pair of touchdown drives that helped the Lions beat the Rams before a crowd of 45,873 at Detroit. Los Angeles rallied and cut the gap to a single point but lost out when Danny Villaneuva's field goal try from the 21 was wide.

Drake Hands Redwood First Marin League Grid Setback

By GLEN BECKER

Sparked by a touchdown scored in the last three seconds of the first half, the Drake Pirates surged to a pair of TD drives in the third quarter Saturday night to whip Redwood 27-13 at Kentfield.

The Pirates thereby halted a number of Giant winning streaks. The loss was the first for the defending Marin County Athletic League champions in league competition; it was their initial defeat at the hands of either of their Tamalpais High School District foes, Tam and Drake, and it was the first triumph over Redwood by any first year of the Larkspur school's existence.

The convincing Drake victory was the result mainly of a punishing rushing offense and hard-hitting line play. After coming from behind twice in the first half, coach Bob Franceschini's boys completely dominated the last two periods.

In the opinion of the Pirate mentor and many other observers, the turning point in the game occurred when Drake was able to shove over its second touchdown seconds before the first half ended. The winners sped 57 yards in three minutes, with junior halfback Tom Kolbe, the offensive star of the evening, accounting for 38 of them, including his two-yard sprint around left end for the tally.

TYLER PASS

Two important plays put the Pirates in a position to score the TD. On a fourth down situation with seven yards to go at the Drake 46, Kolbe took a screen pass from quarterback Hamish Tyler and raced 24 yards to the Redwood 30.

With 32 seconds remaining, Tyler was rushed hard while trying to pass on first down. His wobbly toss fell untouched, but pass interference was called against a Redwood defender diving for the ball. The ensuing penalty gave Drake the ball at the Giant 15 with 28 seconds left.

Rich Bottini ploughed for six, and an incomplete pass left 12 seconds. At this point the Pirates called on Kolbe, and the all-purpose halfback didn't fail them.

He first bulled for seven up the middle, and then raced toward the corner of the end zone, and barely got one foot past the goal line before the desperate Giants pushed him back. The 13-13 deadlock was unchanged when Tyler plunged unsuccessfully for the extra point.

Their spirits soaring after this tying TD, the Pirates came out for the second half at full steam. Standout guard Ed Bowler, who had scored the first Drake touchdown on a 45 yard jaunt with a recovered Redwood fumble, returned the short Giant kickoff to the losers' 44. There the steady Drake offense took charge. Eight successive rushing plays brought the Pirates to the 24, and there Tyler passed twenty yards to end Dave Manuel for a first down at the four yard line.

Steve Solinsky of Redwood dropped Kolbe for a four yard loss, but Tyler then found Manuel again on an eight yard TD pass. Kolbe bucked the middle for the conversion and Drake led 20-13.

Bowler and Jim Whitt led the Pirate defense in holding Redwood on downs after the ensuing kickoff, and Drake took over after a 35 yard punt by Giant Randy Baugh to the winners' 35.

ANOTHER MARCH

There Drake began another inexorable march toward the Redwood goal line, Kolbe starting it with a 19 yard jaunt to the Giant 46. Tyler mixed his plays well, and his team drove to the Redwood 13. Kolbe then carried three times, the last good for three yards and the fourth Pirate TD, his second, on the second play of the last quarter.

Drake did not allow the Giants a first down in the second half, and at the final gun was at the Redwood one yard line. Franceschini said that his boys concentrated on stopping Redwood fullback Kip Solinsky, and the success of their efforts is evidenced by the Giant star's subpar rushing total of 31 yards gained in eight attempts.

On the other hand, Kolbe racked up 101 yards in 20 tries, plus his 24 yard pass reception. His teammate, Bottini, amassed 51 in ten rushes.

Coach Bob Troppmann's Giants started the contest as if they were going to follow the script of their victories over Drake in the last three years. They drove from the opening kickoff to a touchdown. Keith Norton went six yards for the score, after Dennis Coombs had set it up with a 22 yard run around left end. The kick for the conversion was not good.

On Drake's second play from scrimmage, the Pirate ball carried fumbled, and the Giants recovered on their 46. Two plays later, Redwood fumbled. Bowler picked up the loose ball in a crowd of players, and was halfway to the Giant end zone before anyone realized it.

TYLER TO MANUEL

A Tyler pass to Manuel for the extra point was nullified by a penalty, so the two Pirates did it again from the eight yard line for a 7-6 Drake lead.

Redwood stormed right back, marching 60 yards to its second TD. Steve and Kip Solinsky led the Giant attack, with the former plunging seven yards for the score. Charles Cauldwell booted the first successful Redwood conversion attempt of the season, and with 44 seconds remaining in the first quarter, Redwood led 13-7.

Almost the entire second period was contested in Pirate Territory. Late in the quarter, however, Drake began the crucial drive to its second TD, and the tide turned in the Pirates' favor.

The victory in the varsity tilt gave Drake a clean sweep of the day's gridiron competition with its arch-rivals. Earlier, the Pirate freshmen edged the Redwood rookies in the last minute, 13-6, and Drake's junior varsity bested their Redwood counterparts 14-0.

Raiders Fall Into Cellar

DENVER (UPI)—The Oakland Raiders were back in the American League basement today, broodi.g over a field goal with eight seconds remaining in the game that put them there.

Denver halfback Jack Hill booted the Broncos out of the cellar yesterday with a 27-yard field goal. The kick climaxed a Bronc rally to give them a 27-24 win.

The Broncos thus climbed hand over hand past Oakland in the AFL standings. Denver now has a 2-4 record, while the Raiders have won one out of five.

Denver staged a fourth period rally to overcome a 24-14 Oakland lead. The rush got underway when quarterback Frank Tripucka threw a 26-yard touchdown pass to halfback Al Frazier.

Hill's game-winning kick followed a wacky field goal attempt and fumble. Hill first tried a field goal from 52 yards but it fell short into the arms of Oakland halfback Charley Fuller. Fuller returned to his own 26, where he fumbled with Denver guard Gordy Holtz recovering. Hill promptly tried again, this time successfully.

Italians Defeat U.S. In Davis Cup Finals

ROME (UPI) — Italy defeated the United States in the Davis Cup interzone tennis final today and earned the right to meet Australia in the challenge round the Nicola Pietrangeli defeated Jon Douglas of Santa Monica, Calif., 9-7, 6-3, 6-2.

Pietrangeli's victory gave Italy an insurmountable 3-1 lead in the best of five series and rendered meaningless the second of today's singles matches pitting Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., against Fausto Gardini.

The Italians had split the opening day singles matches and won the doubles.

This marked the second straight year that Italy has defeated the U. S. in the interzone final. Before 1960, Italy never before had played in the challenge round. The U. S. had played in 17 consecutive challenge rounds between 1937 and 1959.

The first set was a baseline duel with little net play. Douglas, 25-year-old former Stanford football quarterback, had an opportunity to win the opening set when he broke service in the 11th game to go ahead, 6-5.

But he promptly lost his own service and finally in the 16th game, he was pulled out of position and beaten by placements to lose the 56-minute set.

The second set last only 20 minutes. The 28-year-old Pietrangeli swept the first four games. Douglas rallied momentarily with a rervice break and narrowed the gap to 4-2, only to be outplayed again by Pietrangeli and drop the second set.

Stanford End Wins Big Five Honors

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Stanford sophomore end Frank Patitucci today won big five conference "lineman of the week" honors.

Patitucci, a 6-3, 201-pounder from Montebello, Calif., was making his debut as a starter, substituting for the injured Steve Pursell.

He put on a dazzling defensive and offensive show in Stanford's 17-6 conquest of San Jose State. He intercepted two passes, recovered a fumble, made several key tackles and caught one 17-yard pass.

S.F. Saints Hold L.A. To 3 Defeats

FRESNO, Calif., Oct. 16 (UPI)—The San Francisco Saints may be the power in the new American Basketball League—if they can play Los Angeles all season long.

The Saints continued their exhibition dominance of the Jets yesterday with a 90-74 win at Fresno. It was the fourth San Francisco victory in the five games between the two.

The Jets' Dan Swartz was high scorer with 19 points. Los Angeles hit three out of nine from the three-point zone while the Saints made one out of five good.

49ers Learned A Few Lessons; Team 'Down' After Last Two Great Games

CONNOLLY

If experience is the best teacher, the San Francisco 49ers learned a few lessons yesterday in Minnesota when the Vikings gave 'em a good scare for three quarters of the NFL contest. The 49ers finally made the gamblers honest by winning by the predicted margin of 14 points, 38 to 24.

But it wasn't easy, matey. Coach Red Hickey's playmates just ran out of ways to give the ball away and finally managed a couple of well aimed shots from the shotgun to pull it out.

Stepping into his first starting assignment as an offensive back, Abe Woodson discovered that the modern football does not come equipped with a handle. The speedster from Terra Linda showed enough in his running to prove that he will become a valuable asset, but you can bet that he will have so many footballs thrown, handed and kicked to him this week in practice that he will have a new crop of blisters. To put it mildly, the habit of fumbling is frowned upon in this league.

COULD BE that Abe was a bit jittery in his new role. Could also be, in receiving punts, Abe was hearing the pitter-patter of not so tiny feet bearing down on him. Or, as one observer pointed out, Woodson has been spending his career on defense knocking the ball down instead of grabbing it.

All together the 49ers lost the pigskin six times on fumbles, and bobbled the ball on at least three other occasions. Add this to two interceptions of passes, and you've got problems.

There can be little doubt that the entire team was "down" after two tremendous performances the past weeks. For the greater part of the game the tackling was of exhibition game caliber where you try to knock the man down, but if you miss, somebody else can have him. Of course the presence of old Hugh McElhenny had something to do with the problem. The King can still give 'em the hip or the leg and then leave a tackler with an armful of air.

IN SPITE of the sloppy character of play, Coach Hickey's shotgun offense added a couple more potent shells that will give defending coaches a few more wrinkles. In this game the backs were sent through quick openers in the line and blasted past the defense in a manner reminiscent of the original "T" formation of 20 years ago.

With the defense watching the busy tailbacks so carefully, C. R. Roberts and J. D. Smith had a field day. And when the defensive backs pulled up, "Quarterback" Red Hickey sent in the long pass that can and will go all the way.

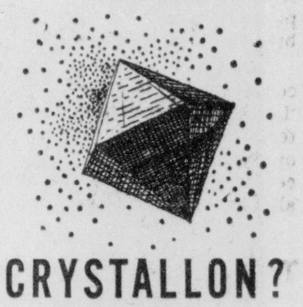
THE SHOTGUN will continue to win games. Rookie tailback (ex-quarterback) Bill Kilmer summed it up best when he admitted that he likes to have Hickey call 'em from the sidelines because it frees the tailback from the chore of thinking, and he can concentrate all his efforts on the play at hand! That could easily be one of the quotes of the year.

It was frightening to see the way the Green Bay Packers chewed up the Cleveland Browns, and only a little less scary to contemplate the resurgence of the Chicago Bears, who are next on the menu. It's nice to win by one point or forty nine, but that comfortable cushion felt awfully good when we had it.

GIANTS' MARSHALL SOLD TO N.Y. METS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16 (UPI)—The San Francisco Giants have sold first baseman Jim Marshall to the New York Mets in a "sraight cash transaction."

The 29-year-old Marshall, acquired from the Boston Red Sox in 1960, hit .222 in 44 games this year as a part-time first sacker and pinch-hitter.

What is a


CRYSTALLON?

A crystallon is a crystal fragment used as a catalyst in the making of synthetic quartz crystals which are important in the field of electronics.

The study of synthetic crystals is just one way chemistry is helping our country's technological progress.

To continue our advance, we will need many more chemists in the years to come. Yet many potential chemists may never go on to higher education because there may not be room for them in college. Many colleges are overcrowded and in 10 years applications will double. We will need more and better college laboratories and thousands more of the highest quality professors.

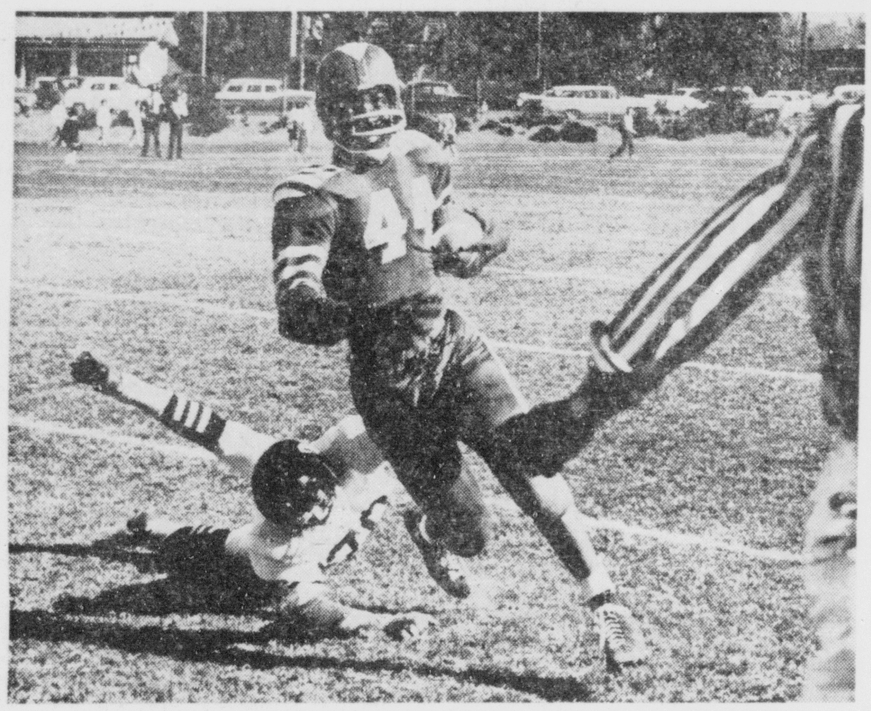
HEAT AND HORNETS OVERCOME INDIANS

Novato quarterback Don Scribner (42) moves into a tight spot early in the scoreless first quarter of the Hornet-Tamalpais High game Saturday afternoon in summer heat. Tam defensive men Mickey Johnston (53), Fred Fellows (73) and Warren Domino (44) move in for the kill. The Indians were licked 26-13. (Independent-Journal photos by Joe DeNarie)

HIT HARD — Novato defensive back Cliff Pierce (30) — standout player of the Hornets victorious afternoon—smashes Indian ball carrier Warren Domino in the first period of play. In front of Dennis McCormick (50) who scored a Novato TD, is Indian Brian Laurie (88), who in the fourth period caught a long pass to set up Tam's first TD.



DESPERATE TRY — Novato's Cliff Pierce (30) makes a fruitless dive at the heels of Indian Warren Domino (44) who picked up several yards on the play in the first quarter. Domino's best performance, however, was defensively. Pierce scored one of Novato's TDs, and set up the other by his pass interception. Novato Coach Marlin Olsen credited much of the victory to the work of Pierce both as a pass receiver and pass defender. One of Tam's big pass receiver of the day was Ruben Moten, who picked off an 11-yard TD flyer from quarterback Don Scribner in the last four minutes of play.

PROTEST LODGED ON GRID RULING

Football Coach James Hanretty of Tamalpais High School has protested the Marin County Athletic League Board of Managers ruling ineligible three Tam players for league infractions.

First string end Dave Perlis of the Indians and two junior varsity players, Fred Mack and John Walker, were made ineligible by a unanimous decision of the board, consisting of Marin high school principals, Thursday.

The athletes were reportedly disallowed to continue the season because they played a baseball game for the Mill Valley Merchants team after the pre-league high school football season was under way. MCAL rules say nobody may play on two teams during the same season.

TAKES BLAME

Hanretty—who reported the infraction to the board as soon as he learned of the Mill Valley game—asserted that his athletes played the baseball game in ignorance of the MCAL rule "and if anyone should be punished it should be the coach (me) for not informing them of the rule."

Hanretty said he thought the board's ruling was unfair . . . that the board should have given them (the ineligibles) some kind of a chance in that it was a mistake and not an intentional infraction. Hanretty has written a letter of protest to the board.

The Tam coach said a whole practice session at the outset of the season was devoted to orientation of school, league and other regulations, but he said he failed to point out this particular rule to the players.

(The CIF rule differs from the MCAL regulation. The state league allows athletes to play on two teams simultaneously as long as the sports differ.)

The ruling, made two days before the Tam-Novato game Saturday, concluded senior Perlis' high school football career.

Novato Defeats Tam In Sun Baked Game

By PAUL MILLER

Both Novato and Tamalpais football players today enjoyed the pleasant temperature of a classroom, long cool drinks at school water fountains, and the intense heat of the College of Marin stadium in Kentfield was only a memory.

For the Novato Hornets it was a pleasant memory, however, because they overcame the heat and the Tamalpais Indians, 26-13 there Saturday afternoon.

Tamalpais dominated the first period with a total of 44 yards gained to Novato's 27. But late in the second period the North Marin team — conditioned physically for games under the sun—began to move. They scored on a 74-yard pass from Don Scribner to wingback Clifford Pierce, came back in the opening seconds of the third period to score again, then in 10 plays had another TD, and by the middle of the fourth period had racked up four touchdowns and 26 points against the scoreless Indians.

With four minutes to go Tam finally tallied on an 11-yard pass from quarterback Jack Martin to halfback Ruben Moten and then again on a spectacular fumble recovery and 35-yard romp by Indian end Art Foster as the shade started to creep across the field. But so did old man time and latter was first.

START TO BUZZ

The Hornets first started to buzz with three minutes left in the first half. They took over after a fourth down play by the Indians on their own 23. Then in three plays Pierce was running clear, deep in the Indian secondary, Scribner hit him with the leather and the lid was off on Novato's touchdown box.

Third period scoring started when a pass play was intercepted by Hornet safety Pierce on the Indian 32. He took it back to the 21. Novato half back Craig Bond took it for 14 more yards on the next play, and Dennis McCormick plunged from the seven for the score a play later. Tackle John Cook kicked the PAT and the count was 13-0.

The first play after Tam got the kickoff Hornet Walter Halkovich intercepted a pass by Indian Martin on the Tam 23. After 10 plays that alternated through the left and right side of the Indian inside line Bond dove over from the one-foot line for six more digits. Cook added another with his PAT boot for 20.

THIRD STEAL

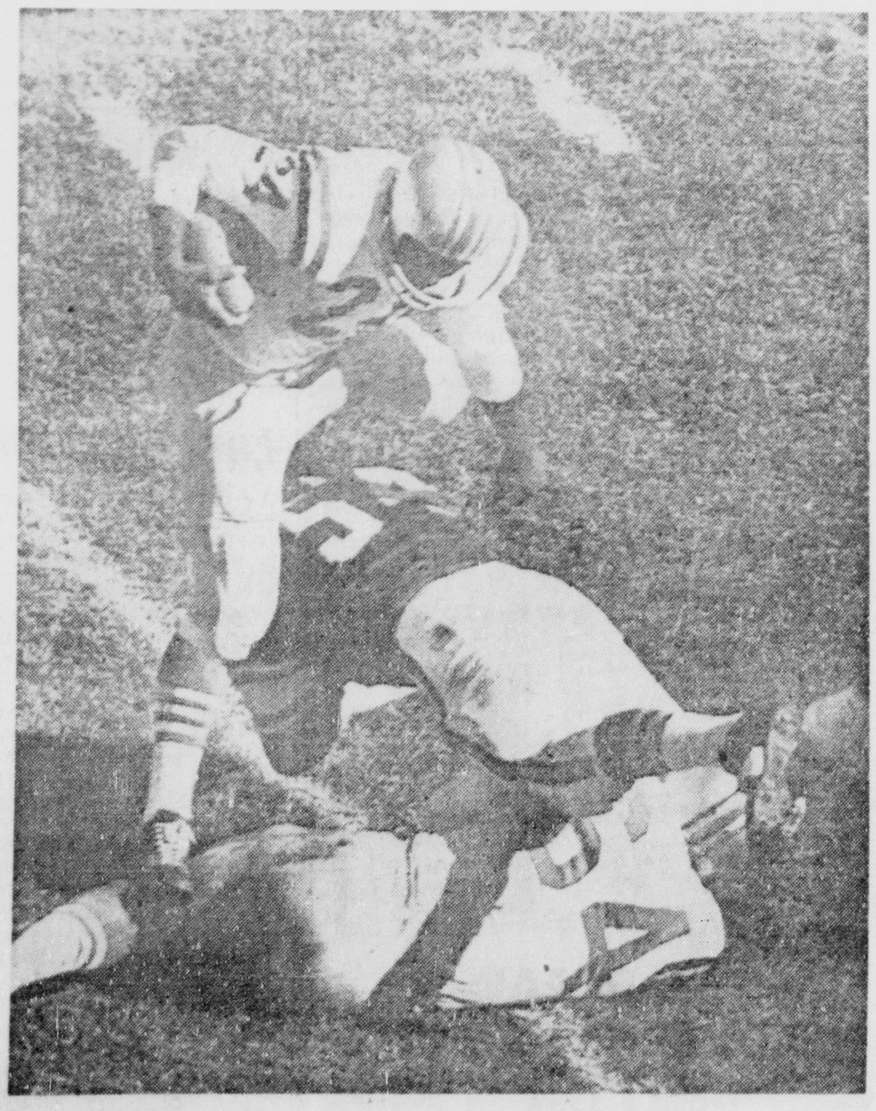
After the kickoff Tam suffered itis third interception in three plays, but was able to get the ball back almost immediately when Novato fumbled on its first play after the interception on the Tam 26. The Indians were confintd to their own country however.

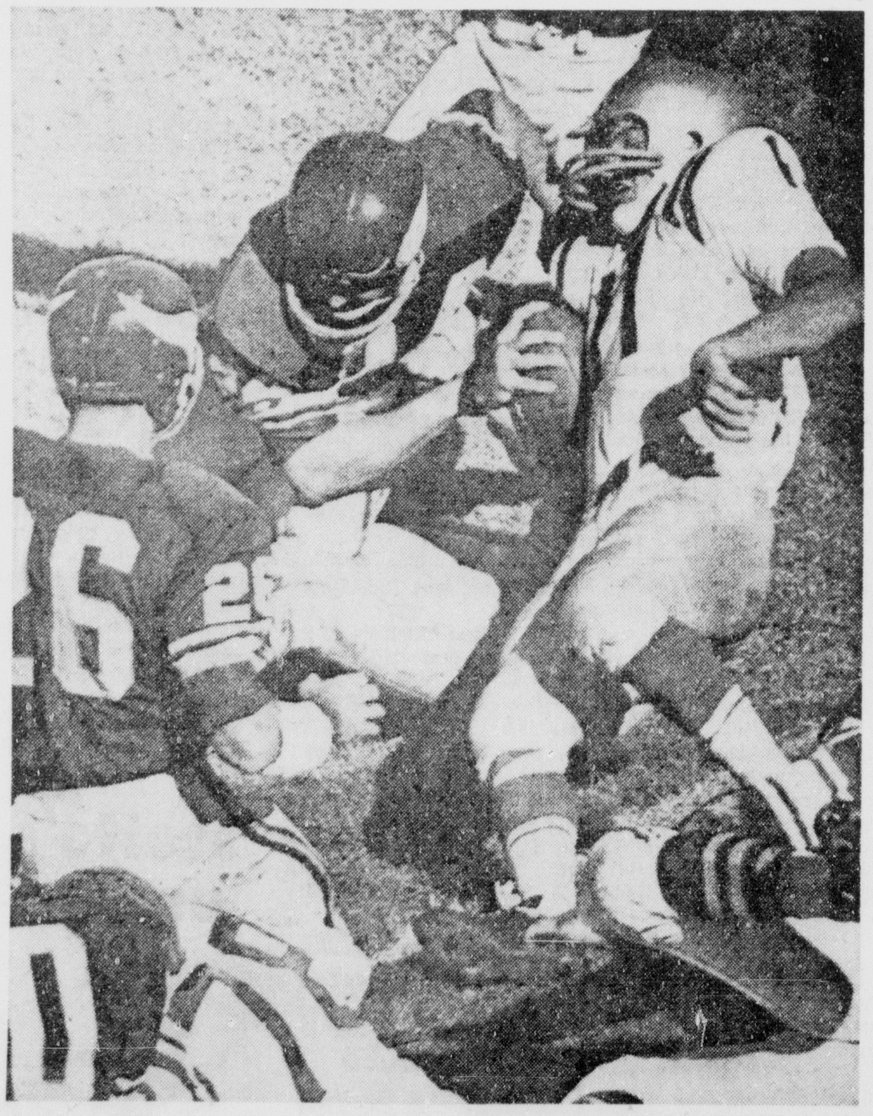
The Indians during the third and until late in the fourth quarter could'nt seem to run in the heat wave and couldn't make their passes click. Novato could run and did, especially Bond and Scribner. It was the latter who set up the final Novato score when he sailed a 31-yarder to John Miller placing Novato on the Tam two, first and ten. Scribner failed from the two on a sneak, but was successful from the one foot mark on the successive play.

The game was getting closer and closer to a shutout. But in the final four minutes Tam rallied.

Beset by heat, four enemy touchdowns, the lack of defensive tiger Mickey Johnston who was weak from an earlier illness, and minus four key first stringers, including Dave Perlis, the Indians saw a shutout coming. They continued their passing attack which up to that point had not only been uneffective, but detremental to Tam, rather than Novato. But on a two and ten situation from their own 27 Martin connected with end Brian Laurie, who went all the way and broke the shut out. Three plays later Foster smashed through the Novato line from his upright position on the defensive line rushed the Novato passer then stole the ball and was off for Tam's second TD. The PAT was good. Seconds later the gun sounded.

"If we were going to do it, we had to do it today," said coach Marlin Olsen of his Hornets, who did do it.

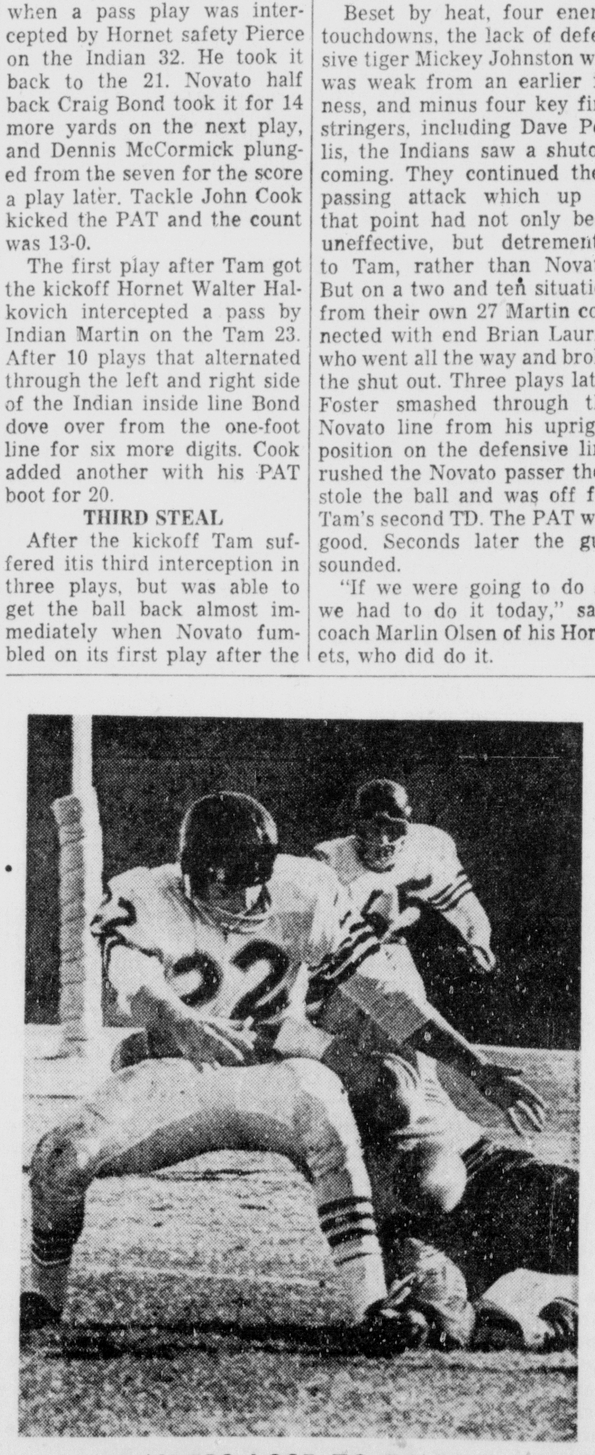




49ERS CUT DOWN VIKINGS

J. D. Smith (24), San Francisco 49er, leaps high to miss Karl Rubke (54), Minnesota Viking tackler, also flying, in the first quarter of their National Football League game yesterday in Twin Cities. San Francisco's Ted Connolly (64) made the block on Rubke which allowed Smith to gain six yards on the play. 49ers won, 38-24. (AP Wirephoto)

SCORE QUICKLY—Bob Waters (11) of the San Francisco 49ers, drives over goal line to make a quick score against the Minnesota Vikings. Waters went six yards on the play. The 49ers recovered a Viking fumble early in the frame and then in four four plays drove 27 yards for the touchdown. Trying to stop Waters are Charlie Sumner (26) and Rich Mostardi (center).



RAIDERS LOSE TO DENVER

Wayne Crow (22) of the Oakland Raiders fumbles the ball deep in Oakland territory on the 13 yard line as he was hit hard in the second quarter by an unidentified Denver Broncos tackler. Minutes later Denver scored a touchdown. Denver went on to defeat Oakland 27 to 24 in the last minute of game. (AP Wirephoto)

Skill And Water Hose Account For Race Win

RIVERSIDE (UPI) — Two-time world champion Jack Brabham's skill and a broken water hose were credited today with providing him with victory in the most thrilling of all four Riverside Grand Prix.

Brabham, 34, thrilled a crowd estimated at well over 50,000 by taking the lead from Bruce McLaren on the last lap of the 62-lap 203.3 mile race at winding Riverside raceway.

"On that broken water hose I had to fall back and Jack passed me," said the disconsolate McLaren, who finished seconds behind Brabham to earn second place money. Both first and second place finishers drove Cooper Monaco climax sports cars, but the new American Chapparel Chevrolet driven by Jim Hall, Midland, Tex., millionaire, gave a good account of itself.

Hall took third in the race, with Roger Penske, Philadelphia, in fourth—in another Cooper Climax.

Brabham, now driving out of Surrey, England, set a new all-time record of two hours, 9:33.8 minutes and had an average speed of 94.06 miles an hour. "I felt good all the way," said Brabham.

Rumors Point To Wally Lemm As Houston's Mentor

HOUSTON (AP)—The Houston Oilers are scheduled to name a new head coach today and all the rumors point to little Wally Lemm.

Lou Rymkus was fired as head coach Saturday and Fred Wallner—earlier mentioned as a likely candidate to replace Rymkus—got his walking papers Sunday night.

K. S. Bud Adams, the millionaire owner of the American Football League's defending champions, said Rymkus was fired for not using the talent available to him in the best way.

He said Wallner, defensive coach, was fired because of Houston's poor defensive showing in recent games.

Houston has won one game and tied another in five starts.

Cal's Victory Shakes Up Bowl Picture

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Just one Big Five conference game has been played, but California's shocking victory over the Washington Huskies shows there could be a merry mix-up for Rose Bowl selectors when the campaign is over.

This week's slate should give a clearer indication whether there will be a clear-cut champion as host in the Pasadena football classic or whether the race could go down to the wire.

California, after beating the favored defending champion Huskies 21-14, hosts the unpredictable Southern California Trojans, who fell before Notre Dame 30-0. Stanford, with a 3-1 mark, travels to Seattle to face a revenge-minded Washington club.

UCLA's game with independent Pittsburgh at Los Angeles will give a further indication since Washington victimized the Panthers two Saturdays ago.

Final selection of the Rose Bowl team rests with the five conference members' voting after the season ends.

HOME DEBUT

UCLA made it a winning home debut at Los Angeles, beating Vanderbilt 28-21 as sophomore halfback Mike Haffner turned in a running show that included a 63-yard touchdown run.

Stanford stayed mainly on the ground in beating San Jose State 17-6, Oregon State dropped a 23-20 decision to Wisconsin, Oregon lost to Arizona 15-6 and Washington State beat Idaho 34-0 for the Cougars' first triumph.

UCLA built a 28-6 lead over Vandy after marching 75 yards in 20 plays the first time they had the ball. Tailback Bobby Smith scored the first of his two touchdowns on a two-yard run.

Oregon State trailed 23-0 at the half against Wisconsin before a rally that fell just three points short. Quarterback Terry Baker threw a pair of touchdown passes in the unsuccessful comeback.

Woman Golfer Is After A Record

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) —Californian Mickey Wright will get a chanct next weekend to become the first woman golfer in history to win more than 10 tournaments in one year.

Miss Wright, the defending ladies PGA champion from San Diego, got No. 10 Sunday with a nine-stroke victory in the $15,000 ladies' PGA championship here.

This week she goes for her 11th win at San Antonio, Tex., scene of the Civitan Tourney.

Betsy Rawls, who finished third here, won 10 tournaments in 1959 to set the record.

Eric Monti To Try For Another 1st At Costa Mesa

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — Eric Monti, big George Bayer and young Bobby Nichols wil pick up where they almost left off—dead even — when they begin play Thursday in the $20,000 Orange County Golf Open at Costa Mesa.

Monti, of Los Angeles, grabbed $2,800 first money in the Ontario Open yesterday, but had to play two extra holes against Bayer and Nicholes and sink an 8-foot birdie putt to wrap it up.

The trio had tier for first over the regulation 72 holes at 277.

Jon Gustin of Gladwyne, Pa., finished fourth with 278 and tournament favorite Gary Player of South Africa tied for fifth with Billy Maxwell of Dalles at 280.

Other money winners at Ontario included Dave Hill 282, Jack Ellis 283, Don Collett 283, Lloyd Mangrum 284, Bob Duden 284 and Jim Ferrier 284.

SC Will Get A Crack At Defeated Huskies

BERKELEY (AP) — Southern California's unpredictable Trojans invade the lair of the once-again Golden Bear on Saturday, facing the improving California gridders who've already shocked Washington.

Scoring in the final three minutes, California upended the defending champions here last Saturday 21-14 in the opening Big Five Conference game.

Southern California, meanwhile, lost to Notre Dame 30-0 just a week after nearly upsetting Iowa before dropping a 35-34 verdict. Earlier Iowa had whipped California 28-7.

There's double football joy in the Bay Area this week. Stanford's Indians continued their winning ways with a 17-6 triumph over San Jose State to put the Indians' record at 3-1.

They get their first Big Five test this week at Seattle against a Washington club aiming for revenge.

California's victory over Washington wasn't a fluke as the Bears rolled up 18 first downs to 9 for the visitors. Still, it took a tremendous defensive play by guard John Erby, blocking a punt at the Washington 17, to set up the triumph.

Three plays after Erby smashed down Dave Kopay's punt try, quarterback Larry Balliett skirted end for six yards and the winning tally.

Balliett, who played both on offense and defense after Randy Gold was hurt in the third quarter, also intercepted a pass in the closing seconds to thwart the final Husky try.

The Bears' pass defense limited Washington's Pete Ohler to just one completion for eight yards in ten throws. Two of his throws were intercepted and each team lost the ball on fumbles three times. Dave Muga pounced on one Washington fumble at the Huskies' seven to set up the Bears' second touchdown. It came on a 21-yard pass from Balliett to George Pierovich. A penalty had pushed back the Californians.

Washington scored first on Martin Wyatt's 72-yard punt return but a try for the two-point conversion failed. California promptly marched 73 yards in 14 plays with Gold throwing 12 to Bob Wills for the touchdown and Jim Ferguson booting the first of his three conversions.

Washington squared accounts 14-14 early in the fourth period on the visitors' only successful drive plus a two-point conversion pass from Ohler to Lee Bernhardi.

Gold is expected to be ready for action against USC, but the Bears may have lost tackle Lauren Bock with a shoulder injury.

Next Saturday's Grid Action To Be Exciting

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Don't go away . . . the fun's just started. A college football season already replete with its fair quota of excitement and surprises steams toward the midway point, picking up momentum like a sprung-loose fullback.

This Saturday's program, for example, offers a number of highlights. Notre Dame, returned to elite status in a hurry, takes on Michigan State in a meeting of all-winning teams. Texas carries its perfect record into Arkansas, where the giant-killing Razorbacks are waiting.

Mississippi's Rebels rated first nationally, play Tulane. Third-ranked Alabama meets Tennessee in another Southeastern Conference feature, and Iowa-Wisconsin and Ohio State-Northwestern top the Big Ten card.

Michigan State and Notre Dame had impressive victories Saturday. The Spartans smothered Michigan 28-0 behind Pete Smith's smart quarterbacking. The Irish, eighth nationally, used 22 backs in rolling over and around Southern California 30-0.

Arkansas tripped ninth-ranked Baylor 23-13.

Texas' fourth-ranked Longhorns clouted Oklahoma for the fourth successive year, 28-7. Ole Miss, showing off its platoons of talent crushed Houston 47-7. Pat Trammell guided 'Bama to its 26-7 victory over North Carolina.

Iowa, second in the nation although riddled by injuries, managed a 27-8 decision over Indiana. Ohio State overwhelmed Illinois 44-0.

In the upset category Saturday—Dick Heydt's placekicking provided Army's margin of victory in its 10-6 conquest of Penn State. California topped Washington 21-14. Two third quarter touchdowns by Roger Holdinsky enabled West Virginia to overcome Pitt 20-6.

Duke, Florida and Nebraska all suffered their first setbacks of the season. A second half surge carried Georgia Tech over Duke, 21-0. Rice came from behind twice for a 19-10 victory over Florida. Syracuse beat Nebraska 28-6.

Dartmouth remained undefeated, swamping Brown 34-0. The Indians have registered 92 points to three for the opposition in three starts.

Sullivan injured his back while working out and when no substitute was found the bout was called off.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

FOREIGN FINERY—Suzanne Scott, 18, at left, shows her sister, Virginia, 16, an Austrian "dirndl," a typical farm community costume still worn for Sunday walks. Marin Girl Tells How She Enjoyed Germany

By CARLETON WILLIAMS

In order to stay healthy, German cyclists must be nimble.

Schoolteachers in Germany face the same disciplinary problems as their counterparts in the United States.

German students are probably more serious than those in America.

Boy-girl dating in Germany is somewhat complicated—because of a shortage of automobiles.

These are just a few of the impressions gained by Suzanne Scott, 18, Redwood High School graduate and now a College of Marin freshman, who recently returned from a summer in Germany under the auspices of the Experiment in International Living.

"If a student in a German 'gymnasium' (high school) flunks a single class, he must repeat his entire year, taking all subjects again," Suzanne said in explanation of the German student's comparatively serious outlook on education. Reason enough to study hard, she implied.

"There are few universities and the competition to get into them is tremendous.

"But," she added, "the kids still talk in class. Teachers all over the world seem to have the same problems."

Suzanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David F. Scott of 250 Monte Vista in Larkspur, spent two months in Ebinger (pop. 20,000) with her adopted family consisting of Herr and Frau H. J. Durr, their son, Uli, 17, and three daughters, Heidel, 20, Gundel, 15, and Traudel, 9.

Three weeks of the summer were spent in travel throughout Germany with 10 other American Experimenters and their "brothers and sisters." Heidel and Gundel each shared part of the journey with Suzanne.

"It wasn't a 'sightseeing' tour," she said. "We hiked, rode bicycles and lived at youth hostels.

"We really talked to the people instead of just looking at their tourist attractions."

During their trip she developed her respect for German cyclists. "Automobiles have the right of way," she said. "They just expect people walking or riding bicycles to take care of themselves as best they can."

The country, she said, reflects general prosperity and shows little sign of destruction from World War II. ("The ambition of the German people has rebuilt everything!")

Automobiles, though plentiful, are not as common as in America, making it necessary for boys to take their dates on long walks, bicycle rides and to private parties.

"The German people realize the need for U.S. troops in their country," she said. "But they are envious and resentful of our obvious wealth.

"The Americans there live luxuriously in their own housing areas and shop in their own shopping centers.

"Our automobiles are terribly out of place—they take up twice the room as German cars. In many ways we do not promote good feelings."

The greatest single lesson she learned, Suzanne said, is that there is little difference in people anywhere.

"You can't think of yourself alone," she said in looking back on the warm friendships she established abroad. "We must be considerate of the feelings of other people.

"Really, the only difference in any of us is our language."

Tires, Beer Stolen At San Rafael Garage

Two whitewall tires and 18 one-half-quart cans of beer were reported stolen Saturday from the garage of Leo Schwab of 137 Bungalow Avenue in San Rafael.

The beer was taken from a shelf in the garage, Schwab told police. The tires were taken off his car which the thieves jacked up, then lowered on its rims after removing the tires.

Boys Caught After Messing Up A House

Three San Rafael juveniles Saturday afternoon were caught fleeing from an unoccupied house they later admitted "tearing apart."

The three were caught running from a home at 120 Marin Drive, known as the Edwards estate. The house was open, the youths said.

Sheriff's deputies said the boys admitted ripping papers, strewing clothes, dumping drawers and breaking several jars of canned fruit. Recovered from the boys, officers said, were a hatchet, pistol and books they said they had removed from the house.

The boys said they know of others who had been in the house but did not identify they. They were ordered to appear before juvenile authorities on Thursday.

Patron Collars Youth Who Let Air Out Of Policeman's Car

San Rafael Police Officer Eugene Frederick quickly supplied the answer to a question asked him Saturday night by a Patron of the Country Club Bowl.

"What do you do with a guy who lets the air out of tires on police cars?" the patron, Douglas William Weddell of 58 Coleman Drive, San Rafael, asked.

At the time he asked the question, Weddell had a firm grip on one Ronald Lee Webb, 21, of 38 Ridge Road, Fairfax. Weddell said he had, moments before, caught Webb letting the air out of Frederick's patrol car, parked outside the Bowl at 88 Vivian Way.

The answer?

Webb, free on $276 bail, is to appear in court at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow to answer a charge of tampering.

Pearl Theme For Gala

Auxiliary Juniors To Mark 30th Year Of Charity Ball

Taking the pearl, symbol of the 30th anniversary, as its theme and then translating it into French, the Sunny Hills Junior Auxiliary has come up with "Bal des Perles" for this season's gala Charity Ball.

This annual dinner dance which with the exception of the World War II years has been held since 1932, will be given Oct. 28 at the Meadow Club.

With pearl as a theme, the decorations, always a major part of the evening, will take the form of madrone trees sprayed white and draped with strings of pearls, "planted" in the main ballroom and the foyer. Near the entry the grab bag will spill out of giant shells, while pearls, shells and chrysanthemums will enhance the candlelight tables in the dining room and porch.

Assisting Mrs. James Gray, decorations chairman, will be Mesdames David Dorward, Walter Meinberger, V. Neil Fulton, Boyd Quinn, Henry Wagner, Henry Hillebrand III, and Dale Schnell.

Invitations have been mailed under the direction of Mrs. David Carey who was assisted by Mesdames William Carewe, Charles P. Cain and William S. Anderson Jr. Mrs. Dean Solinsky, reservations chairman, will be assisted in verifying reservations at the door by Mesdames Leland Sweeney, Herbert West, D. H. Ballinger, J. Murray Fox, John B. Willcutt, John W. Rakow, Thomas Carson and Charles Cooney.

Mrs. James McLaughlin and Mrs. John D. Morse Jr. have assisted Mrs. John C. Munson, chairman, in arranging the grab bag feature, and working at the grab bag throughout the evening will be the Mesdames Henry Cole, Vernon Norris, Robert Lashly, Ralph Tierney, John Bellamy Jr., Martin E. Stuart, James Peggs, Henry Wilks Jr. and Jack Hunt Jr.

Reservations to this gala party are taken by Mrs. Solinsky of Ross.

Ball proceeds will go to the Junior Auxiliary's gift of the year, which last year provided part of a campership program for children at Sunny Hills home in San Anselmo.

Reed District Club Leaders Busy With Family Interests

By CORENA GREEN

These five pretty maids standing in a row are this year's guiding lights in the affairs of the Reed District Parent-Teacher Club.

Mrs. Robert L. Hamilton is overall president of the club. Mrs. Hamilton has four boys, has been active in the club, AAUW, League of Women Voters and finds time to bowl. She is a graduate of Whittier College and her husband is a special agent for the FBI.

Mrs. Peter MacGowan, who is president of Reed Unit, is the mother of two boys and a girl. Her husband is past president of the Tiburon Coordinating Council and is an architect. A graduate of University of California at Los Angeles, Mrs. MacGowan and her husband are active in the Sierra Club.

Wellesley graduate Mrs. Peter Curtis heads the Belvedere Unit. She and her husband, who is a shipbroker, are parents of two sons. Mrs. Curtis keeps busy with St. Stephen's Guild, Northgate Group, and Wellesley Club activities.

President of the Bel Aire Unit is Mrs. Richard E. Kenney. Mrs. Kenney has been extremely active in the club affairs, including library, publicity, children's activities and as vice president of the Bel Aire Unit. She has three boys, and for four years has been a den mother. Mrs. Kenney is a medical secretary by profession. Her husband is employed by Geer Chevrolet.

Mrs. Milton Levitan heads the Del Mar Unit. The school is not yet finished but the unit is already at work. She has been president of the Sparks, ladies auxiliary to the Tiburon Peninsula Club, and worked with the parents club. She is presently press chairman for the Tiburon Peninsula Club. Her husband owns a shop in Sausalito. Mrs. Levitan is a graduate of the University of Washington and has three children.

According to Mrs. Hamilton the theme for the club this year is "Love for Learning."

"Parents must become aware of the importance of setting practical standards for their children, intellectually as well as morally and spiritually. By building a child's confidence in himself, the love for learning will grow and the child's performance in class will then reflect not only good teaching but support from the home," she said.

NEW PRESS-ON PATTERN

The press-on dress pattern introduced this summer looks ordinary but it eliminates the need to mark, trace and make tailor tacks for darts and seams. Place pattern pieces on reverse side of fabric and pin on (see top left); using warm iron gently but firmly press along pattern markings (see top right); go over them twice to make sure. Then all markings are transferred onto fabric (see lower left); then cut out pattern and sew. New patterns include basic skirt, convertible blouse, and classic dress (see lower right.) The press on pattern can be used twice, and then in conventional way. Ink markings come out in washing or dry cleaning.

Diagonal Weave Wool Can Be Cut On Bias For Self Trim

By EUNICE FARMER

"I have purchased diagonal weave wool and propose to use a pattern with a center front seam. Will you please advise me whether or not I should make this by cutting the material to form a 'V' at the center front?" Mrs. K. C.

Dear Mrs. K. C.:

If your fabric is actually woven with a diagonal weave, the diagonal lines must all run in one direction. It is impossible to cut your garment to form a "V" as you asked, unless you would use the wrong side of the fabric for one half of the dress.

Remember that when diagonal woven fabric is cut on the bias, it forms straight horizontal lines, which makes a very attractive contrasting binding. It is the self trim used in an unusual way that makes plaids and diagonals so attractive.

"Would you please send me instructions on how to make the fabric roses used on dresses? This is an expensive looking detail which seems to give the dress a custom made look." Mrs. G. M. C.

Dear Mrs. G. M. C.:

These fabric roses are made with a bias fold of fabric. Cut a strip of bias approximately 8 to 10 inches long and about 7 inches wide. Fold the bias strip and machine stitch with a long stitch, beginning 3 inches from the fold and tapering to about ½ inch from the fold. The width of the bias fold as well as the length of the bias strip will determine the size of the finished rose. For a smaller rose, stitch closer to the fold and make a shorter bias strip.

After you have completed the first row of stitching, make a second row of machine stitching about ¼ inch above the first row.

From the wrong side of your bias fold, pull the two bobbin threads together, until the fold is eased up, or slightly gathered. Now beginning with the narrow end, which will form the center of the rose, gradually wind the bias fold around, working from the center out.

You will notice the appearance of a rose forming. After you have the desired size, stitch the raw edges of the bias fold together on the base of the rose. These stitches will be made by hand and on the base of the rose and will keep the rose in shape. This will take a little practice, but is fun to do.

Dear Fans:

I'm delighted with the hundreds of "sewing tips" you readers have already sent me. Keep them coming, but they will have to be unique and unusual to be considered a winner of a tailor trix pressing board. Your helpful "tips" will be shared and appreciated by our many readers.

Sewing machine needles should be kept in a small bottle to which a drop of oil has been added. This will keep the needles from becoming rusted. Run the needle through a piece of blotting paper before using on the machine. This little tip is very helpful, especially in a southern climate.

Your sewing glossary: matelasse: This is a fabric that is enjoying quite a comeback in dressy clothes. It has a raised design which is woven in the fabric.

Please send your questions and suggestions to Sew Simple, in care of the Independent-Journal.

The 12-Year-Old Daughter Is Both Tomboy, Delicate Young Lady—

"Are all girls crazy?" a father asks, "or do they just act that way? Our daughter is a mixed-up kid of 12. She's as big as a woman, but acts like a tomboy. She plays on the school ball team, but is in love. Yesterday she got into a fight with a boy, and gave him a black eye. Then last night she dressed up like a delicate young lady and went to a dance. Can we help her grow up? What's wrong with her?"

Nothing is wrong. Twelve is a mixed up year for most girls. They're partly children, partly young ladies. Frequently they're confused. Ask her teacher about the other girls in her class. You'll find they're the same. Eventually they get straightened out, but it takes time.

This can be a good year for you and your daughter. You should be patient. Listen carefully to her chatter. She can solve most of her own problems, but she needs to know you are interested. Don't be shocked by the questions she asks. She needs honest answers. Give parties for her occasionally. Plan them carefully. Let her dress the way the other girls dress. Get her into the social swim gradually. Don't preach any more than you must. Preaching is futile anyway.

Have fun with her. Take her to ball games and movies. Go swimming with her. Let her see you as a pleasant companion. Build all the trust and confidence you can. Before long she'll find flaws you didn't know you had and you'll both lose your tempers. You'll really need to love her then.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "My boy is 12. A girl in his class has a crush on him. She writes painful letters, phones him at dinnertime and talks endlessly. He is embarrassed. How can he make her stop?"

B. O.

(A) Ask him to be patient, but noncommittal. If he does nothing to encourage her she'll get over the crush before long. Both the girl and your son are behaving normally for their age. Probably he'll begin having crushes on girls when he is 14 or 15.

Learners and experienced artists are asked to bring a painting or a pencil sketch. Instruction will be given each month by Barbara Briggs, and the group will meet once again each month for a workshop.

Women Workers Are Needed In Industry

NEW YORK (UPI)—More women workers are needed in industry, especially in scientific and technical fields where brain is more important than brawn, Secretary of Labor Arthur Goldberg says.

He does not agree with those who believe a woman's place is restricted to "a suburban plot in the midst of millions of other exactly similar plots."

Goldberg made the statement in a speech read for him at the closing session of the National Council of Women in the United States by Mrs. Esther Peterson, assistant Secretary of Labor.

Women are needed in many fields previously occupied only by male workers, Goldberg said.

"I believe," he said "that women have an enormous and vital contribution to make to the arts, to politics, to our literature, to our theater, and, to an increasing degree, to our economy, not only as wise consumers, but also as executives."

Gamma Phi Betas Honor 50-Year Member In Bolinas

Mrs. Lewis Pepper (Marin Waterhouse) was honored at her Bolinas home last week at a dessert luncheon given by Marin Alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta sorority, of which Mrs. Pepper is a 50 year member.

Mrs. Nelson King, chapter president, presented her with a gold 50-year pin and certificate.

LOVED TO GALLOP

Mrs. Pepper was born and reared in Bolinas. As a girl she loved to gallop her horse over the Bolinas dunes and shoot her rifle on the beach. For two years she was enrolled at the University of California and her class of 1906 didn't have to take final examinations because of the earthquake and fire.

While at Berkeley she became closely associated with her sorority sister, Mary Le Conte Hoffman, who was present for the celebration. It was Mrs. Hoffman's father who was instrumental in moving the University of California campus from Oakland to Berkeley.

In 1911 Marin married Lewis G. Pepper, a member of an old Bolinas family. At the time of their marriage he operated a dairy but during the years of World War I the couple moved to a ranch in Napa that is now covered by the Berryessa dam.

RETURNED HOME

After the war the family returned to Bolinas where Mr. Pepper went into the contracting business which he now operates with the help of his sons.

The Peppers are the parents of five sons and four daughters, seven of whom reside in Bolinas. There are 19 grandchildren and three great grandsons.

Marin is an avid reader of history and biography. Some day she hopes to write her own book on the history of her family and Marin County.

One of the highlights of her college days was in 1904 when she attended the national convention of her sorority and met three of the founders.

New Cookbook Tells Whys And Hows Of Spice Cookery

Poppy seed, nutmeg, thyme, ginger are among the spices, herbs and seasonings turning up in more dishes on the Marin dinner table these days as the housewife learns to try for the "gourmet" flavor for her meals.

Probably never before have these things been so readily available on every corner market's shelf, nor so many cooks venturing to take them home and add a dash to the pot on the stove.

For these adventurous cooks the new "Spice Islands Cook Book" has been designed and printed in the Bay Area. Its 208 pages contain 328 tested recipes to tickle the palate of the most discriminating gourmet and as a bonus it offers comprehensive information on spices, seasonings and herbs, their origin and uses. At the back of the handsomely illustrated book are several charts for quick reference.

This colorful and reliable volume has been published by Lane, Menlo Park, in plenty of time for Christmas gift giving and will be specially priced at $4.95 until then.

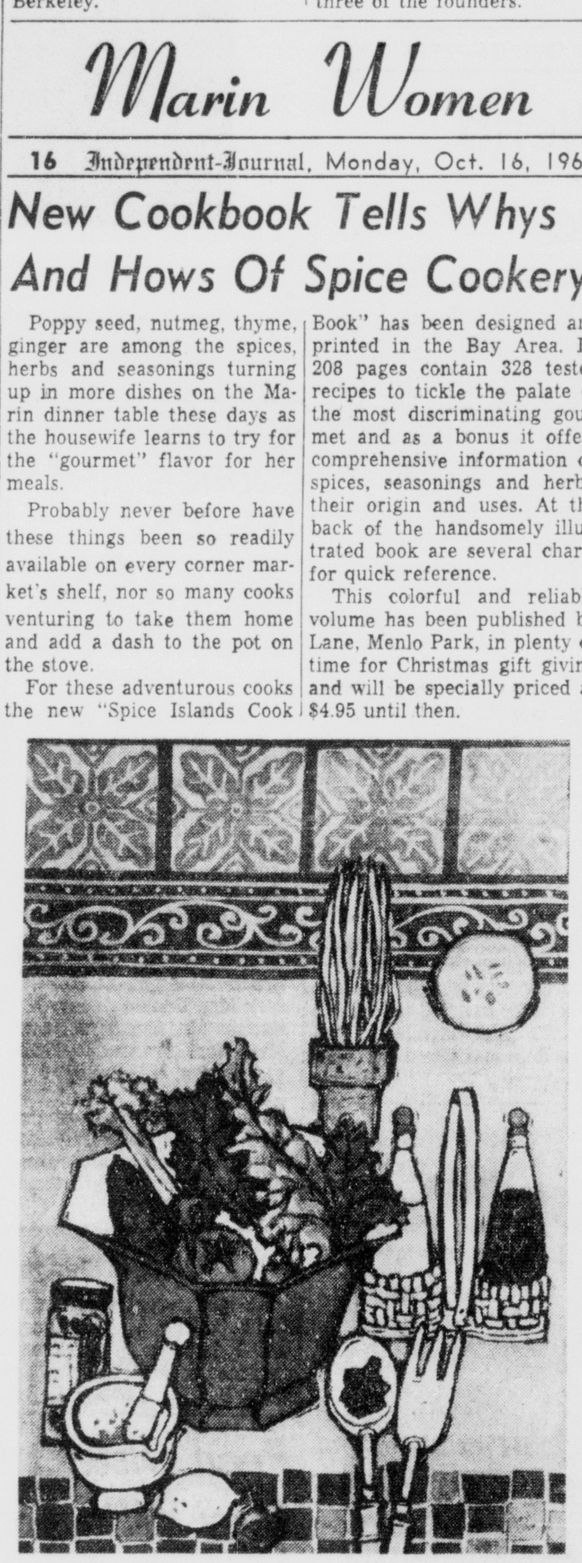

ILLUSTRATION from the new "Spice Islands Cookbook" is one of many in full color in this 208 page publication.

NEW EYE PADS, one of 10 herb-enriched beauty preparations from a new Herbessence collection, are saturated with soothing herbal extract solution and other gentle medicants which are extremely effective for relaxing "sunsquint" lines around the eyes . . . a particular hazard of overzealous sunning.

Golden Gate Area To Present Press Workshop Oct. 31

Herbessence New Aid To Beauty

Exciting fall fashions . . . vibrant new fall colors almost demand a flawless complexion.

One of 10 beauty preparations in the new Herbessence collection, this emollient is a greaseless lubricating cream containing herbals. Recommended for the woman whose skin has lost some of its vivacity and tone, Herbessence skin life cream acts as a moisturizer as well as a lubricant; adds smoothness and softness.

Modern cosmetics techniques were used by laboratories to blend the potent natural properties of these herbs into the rich, gentle formulas long associated with beauty preparations.

Ten beauty preparations are included in the new collection.

The moon is approaching its first quarter.

The morning star is Venus.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1846, the first operation with a patient under ether anesthesia was performed at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston.

In 1859, Abolitionist John Brown staged a raid on Harper's Ferry, Va. He seized a hotel, arsenal, firehouse and 30 townspeople. He said his objective was to free the nation's Negroes.

In 1888, American playwright Eugene O'Neill was born.

A thought for today: Roman Emperor Marcus Aurelius said: "Receive wealth or position without arrogance, and be ready to let it go."

Opening lead — ♡ 2

When West opens the deuce of hearts, South must play low from the dummy. East wins with the queen and should know that South has the jack of hearts since he failed to put up dummy's king. (If South had only three small hearts he would surely play dummy's king at the first trick as his only hope to get a trick in the suit.)

If East fails to count tricks, he will continue with the ace of hearts and a small heart to the jack. South goes after the diamonds and the defenders get just the three hearts and one diamond that were to be expected.

LEAD SPADE? If East counts these expected tricks, he will shift to a spade at the second trick in the hope of getting a fifth trick.

Now it is up to South to count. A non-counter would finesse with the queen of spades and lose the game whether the opponents continued spades or shifted back to hearts.

If South counts, he will put up the ace of spades instead of finessing. Any play will work if West has Q-x or Q-x-x of diamonds. If the diamond finesse is going to lose, however, South cannot afford to lose a spade finesse and thus give the opponents time to get a spade as well as three hearts and a diamond.

After putting up the ace of spades South goes after the diamonds, losing a finesse to the queen. When East leads another spade, South can play the queen. This will win if East happens to have the king, so that South loses nothing by refusing the finesse at the second trick. Since the spades happen to block, South makes his contract even though both the king of spades and the queen of diamonds are in unfavorable position.

Marin City Girl Gets Scholarship

Gloria Jean Woodkins of C-12, Apt. 89, Marin City, has been awarded the 1961 scholarship award by the Marin City Council of Women, Mrs. Woodie White, president, said today.

Miss Woodkins, who is 18 and a June graduate from Tamalpais High School, is to apply the $200 award to her studies at San Francisco State College where she is a freshman.

The annual award is made on the basis of need, scholastic ability and participation in community affairs. Miss Woodkins acted this past summer as assistant to Mrs. Santafe Moses, director of the Marin City summer recreation program and also worked in the program in 1960.

She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodkins.

Rudolph The Sailor

Rudolph Edward Nelson, 18, is the Larkspur youth who enlisted in the Navy — instead of Randolph Edward Nelson, 19, as listed in the Oct. 11 Independent-Journal.

FORD FAIRLANE FOR 1962

The new Ford Fairlane and Fairlane 500 series, available in two and four-door models, are built on a 115.5-inch wheelbase that places them right between the Falcon and the Galaxie. These additions to the Ford family of cars will be introduced November 2 at Ames Ford Sales, San Rafael, L. J. Dervin Ford Co., Novato and J and B Ford Sales (formerly Tamalpais Motor Sales), Mill Valley.

J.E. French Co. Exec. Selling Dodges Now In Marin County

Since a misunderstanding seems to have arisen over the exact capacity of Leon C. Smith, vice president of the J. E. French Co. in selling Dodge automobiles in Marin County, a clarification here has been requested by both Smith and the Dodge Regional Office of Chrysler Motors in San Mateo.

The fact is, there is no authorized Dodge dealership in the county other than Nave Dodge for the Novato area. As a resident of Marin, however, Smith is acting as a representative for J. E. French Co., San Francisco sales and service on this side of the bay with an office in conjunction with the Fairfax Garage.

CONGRATULATIONS to Roy M. Michael and his Royce Finance Plan of San Rafael which is completing its first year of operation. Michaels says the firm now has customers on the books from almost 50 cities in the Bay Area, and believes it to be the fastest growing independent finance company in Northern California. He's beginning to think of another office in a nearby county.

AMES FORD SALES, San Rafael, has received a certificate of merit from the Newspaper Advertising Executives Assn. for outstanding automotive advertising run in the Independent-Journal during the past year.

Several of the firm's ads have been selected to appear in the NAEA semi-annual Sales and Idea Book distributed to daily newspapers throughout the country. Lou Concilio, Ames Ford general manager, was presented with the certificate by I-J advertising director Jack Weese.

RESIGNATION of Townsend L. Schoonmaker (president of A. G. Schoonmaker Co.) from his post as president of Pearson Yacht Corp. of Sausalito, a subsidiary of Pearson Corp. of Bristol, R.I., places it in the hands of C. J. Pearson, president of the Bristol company.

Active management of the California operation will be under the direction of Robert G. Potter, vice president and general manager and a resident of Sausalito. The plant facilities in Sausalito have been expanded and are now producing a full range of sailing and power boats. Newest model, the Alberg 35, is scheduled for deliveries starting early next year.

REAL ESTATE SALES for September were up a scant 2.7 per cent over those for September, 1960, according to figures from the Multiple Listing Board, and the increase was entirely dollarwise, with the number of sales virtually the same. Total amount — $3,745,137.

Dan Deedy, manager of the board, says the yearly total to date is ahead of 1960 substantially though there is no doubt asking prices (and some "getting prices") seem to climb each time a piece of property is sold.

MONTAGE: James T. Doty, president of Bear Photo Service with plants in San Francisco, Sacramento, San Jose and Fairfax, has been elected chairman of the board of directors of Crown-Bremson Industries, Inc. of Washington, D.C., the parent company of Bear.

Fallout Shelters Starting Small Marin Business Boom

By HARRY CRAFT

What will the call for fallout shelters mean to Marin County business?

So far, it has resulted in perhaps a dozen projects in various stages of construction, many more on order, and innumerable inquiries of Civil Defense, contractors and building designers on how and where to construct them—and how much?

The urgency of having shelters set up as expressed by President John F. Kennedy has, no doubt, led to a heels-overhead approach to building them. The upsurge of construction is gaining impetus.

Local opinions are divided between whether it is better to go ahead and get something in the ground that will offer basic fallout protection or wait on specific engineering standards for durable shelters providing a high degree of shock protection.

"We may be wrong," says Jack Goodall of Larry Wright and Associates, San Rafael, "but we have avoided franchised deals offered us in favor of our own design being engineer-approved before we start construction. We should be ready any day now."

Wright's basic design is an underground eight - by - 12 - foot reinforced shelter with eight - inch concrete walls, floor and ceiling pneumatically applied, two 90-degree angles in the entrance passageway and the customary three feet of earth over the top. Air intake and blower vents, the blower itself, waterproofing and a chemical lavatory area would be provided. Other equipment would be at the option of the owner.

Frank Clark of Clark Construction Co., San Rafael, has announced he will undertake construction of any of the popular - type shelters: concrete, block, concrete culvert or steel tube. The last two are mostly pre-fabricated and installation would involve excavation, access passage and finishing.

San Rafael building designer Edward Hageman has already laid out plans for several do-it-yourself projects, particularly where limited space presents a problem.

Adolph Casper of San Anselmo has announced his intent to enter the field. Some other local men holding B-1 contractor licenses are already engaged in shelter construction and more are sure to follow.

Reinforced pre-cast concrete pipe probably has some outstanding qualities for shelter design. Varying lengths are available for adaptation to large and multiple family use. Its circular shape has an added strength factor and a nod of approval has been given by the Office of Defense Mobilization. Most projects will require contractor installation for entry and finishing but some home workers may be inclined to undertake it themselves. Concrete Conduit Co. of Dixon has entered the shelter business with this product.

The steel tube shelter with an eight-foot diameter, as manufactured by Hercules Fallout Shelters of Santa Rosa and sold by Econo-Mart of Marin in San Rafael, has already been described in a previous article in the Independent - Journal. Completely equipped with light, outlets, fresh water system, chemical toilet, steel bunks and plywood floor, installation is primarily a matter of digging a big hole and dropping it in the ground.

In other parts of the state a multitude of bombshelter specialty firms have been organized. Franchised dealers are being appointed and two, so far, are reaching into Marin.

Nuclear Safety Shield Bomb Shelters in Belmont has appointed an agent for San Rafael. Bomb Fallout Shelters Unlimited of Sacramento has already been active in the county for about a month. Marin representative Dean Bond of Terra Linda has begun construction of one shelter in Sleepy Hollow and has a backlog of orders.

This is a reinforced poured concrete shelter—popular size eight by 10 feet, seven feet high — extremely compact and suitable for six persons. It is sold completely equipped with chemical toilet, six steel bunks with mattresses, water container, 110-volt lighting system and auxiliary 12-volt system with three storage batteries and hand-cranked generator, water container, stove, intake and exhaust vents with micron filters and pump, and transistor radio with outside antenna.

Access is by steel hatch and ladder or stairs. Walls are coated for waterproofing, and overlapping transverse baffles are included for extra strength. Larger shelters are available for more occupants and multi-family groups.

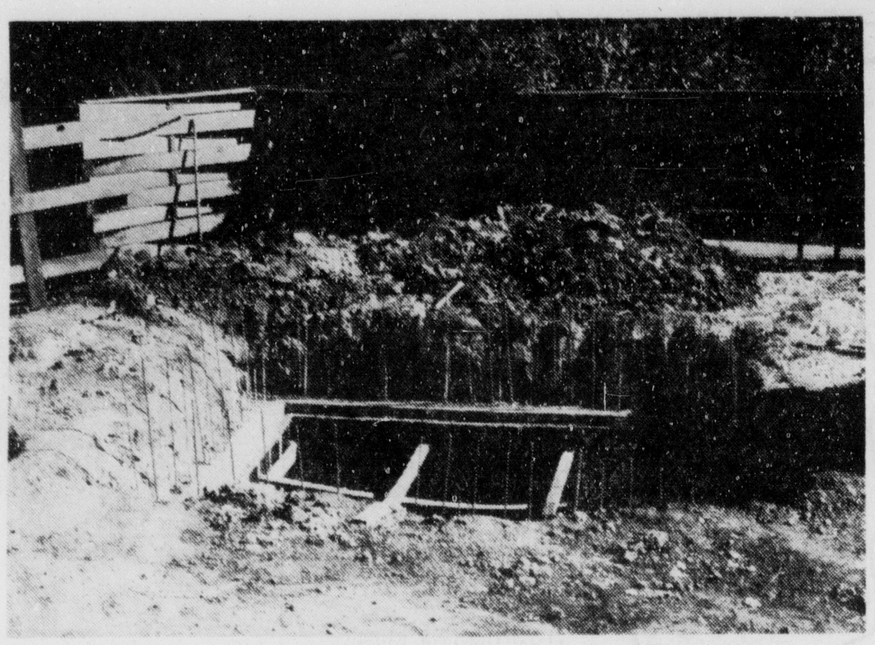
Aboveground shelters, necessary where a high water table is present, have double concrete walls with three feet of dirt between them and on top —more expensive, of course.

"We have built about 20 units in Sacramento alone and have our own engineers and own crew. We've been approved by the National Office of Civil Defense in Battle Creek, Mich.," Bond states. "Time of construction is three to four weeks—start to finish. Add another 30 days for FHA financing."

A heavy blast protection is claimed but, says Bond, "we have no way of knowing just how much will be needed. Neither has anyone else."

Since the firm has already had several cases of two-family shelters, here is the customary procedure in such construction:

The shelter is built on one piece of property with an assignment of rent being given to the other family. If the property is sold, one-half of the value must be paid off to the renter, unless the new owner agrees to purchase subject to the rent assignment.



NOT A BOMB CRATER—It's only a hole in the ground now, but in another few weeks this partially completed vault under construction by Bomb Fallout Shelters Unlimited will be a furnished refuge for Mr. and Mrs. David Geoffrion of Sleepy Hollow and their family, with only a hatch cover and four vent pipes at the surface to betray its presence.

Chamber Requests Forestry Study

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The State Chamber of Commerce recently requested the State Board of Forestry to undertake a study of present timber harvest practices after 16 years of operation under the Forest Practices Act.

The Chamber asked that the study be made by the University of California School of Forestry to determine if the act is functioning properly and accomplishing its basic purposes.

The statute provides for the adoption of forest practice rules to conserve and maintain productivitiy of eight million acres of private timberland in California.

Student Body Store

Students of merchandising classes at San Rafael High School are operating the student body store, selling supplies bought from local merchants. Their work includes all aspects of sales, keeping of inventory controls, selection of merchandise and making financial statements.

Water Pollution Action On Agenda

Adoption of a long-range plan and policy on water pollution control within the Las Gallinas Valley watershed will come up for action at a meeting of the Regional Water Pollution Control Board in Oakland Thursday.

Tentative requirements and monitoring programs for waste discharges would be prepared by the staff, according to terms of the resolution.

Also scheduled for the meeting are reports on progress from the Corte Madera Sanitary District and the City of Belvedere toward compliance with the board's directives.

Fire Unit Meeting

Tiburon Fire Protection District commissioners will consider the California state retirement program for the department's four paid personnel at a meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Tiburon Boulevard main fire station, according to secretary Kelly J. Wheeler.

The majority of Peruvians live west of the country's mountains, along the long, narrow coastland.

You'd love to see Europe our way

"Europe—with time enough and means enough really to get the feel of Old World living. The leisure to explore her backroads, to make friends with some of her people, to savor her background of art and tradition.

"For years this has been our big ambition. And here we are.

"A far cry from the hurry-up, watch-the-budget vacations we used to take. It was one of them, I remember, that made us realize we'd have to do a better job of managing money if we were to live (and travel) the way we wanted to.

"It wasn't easy at the start. But we held to the practice of putting aside a little each month in a Crocker-Anglo savings account.

"We could have saved as much, I know, with any other bank. But as it turned out, choosing Crocker-Anglo was the key to all the good things that came later . . . because of the helpfulness of Crocker-Anglo people. Time after time, we turned to them for advice and assistance.

"Would we be wise to use my small bonuses to buy some stock? Should we borrow money to buy the house across the street as an investment? If we did, could we later get a property improvement loan to enlarge it and increase its rental value?

"Questions like these arose all along the way. The fact that C-A's people helped us work out the answers made it possible for us to move ahead financially. To the point where —today—we can get more living done."
